The universe is your theatre in which you play. You must remember it is not reality, although you may express it as such if you wish. You are free to create non-sense or tragedy; or to play a part that makes sense only to you.

PROLOGUE

Each season of the year reminds us of certain events. Fall brings us football, homecoming and the fair. Basketball and Christmas vacation come in the winter. Spring holds baseball and Spring Break, and, of course, with summer comes the end of the school year. So we have arranged this play in accordance with the seasons and this year's events.

Flint: Allow me to introduce myself; I am Flint Tyrone, and I'm here in the Karns High Annual on a special mission. I work for a secret underworld spy network, and I am currently tracking down someone I believe to be hiding in your school. The man of whom I speak is short, stocky, has blond hair and blue eyes. I have been on the trail of my adversary for over three months now, and at last my moment has arrived.

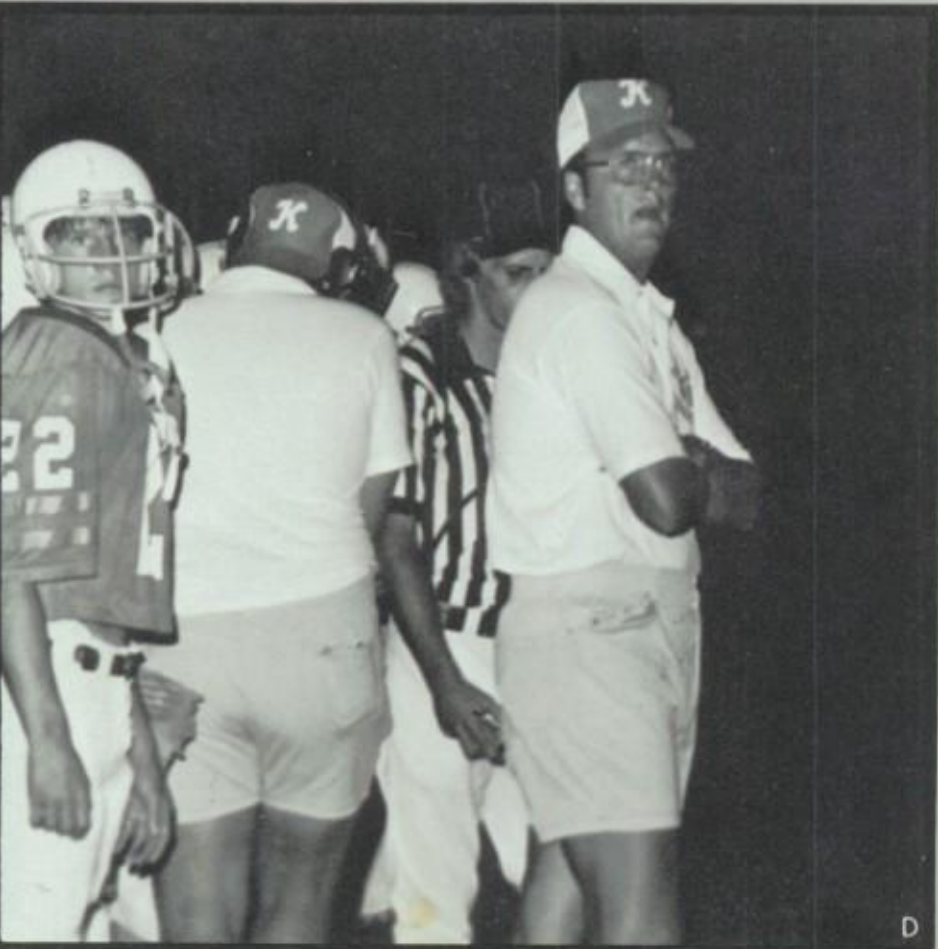

A. Sonya: So we were just sitting in class when some idiot walks in wearing a ridiculous suit and the biggest diamond ring . . .

B. Randy: I don't know these people.

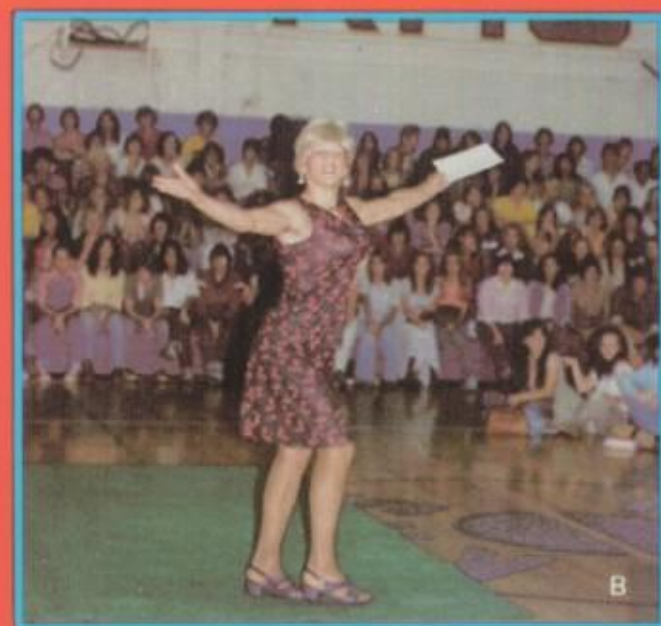

C. Flint: So after I finished my off coast assignment for Peru, President Carter asked me . . .

Tammy: Ah . . . Yea . . . sure . . . right.

D. McLemore: But Ref isn't that illegal use of hands?!

E. Linda: Man, Dig those threads! David: Who is that?

A Ms. Adams (to herself) Gee, I hope Mr. Lyons doesn't catch me with my feet on the desk because I hate writing sentences

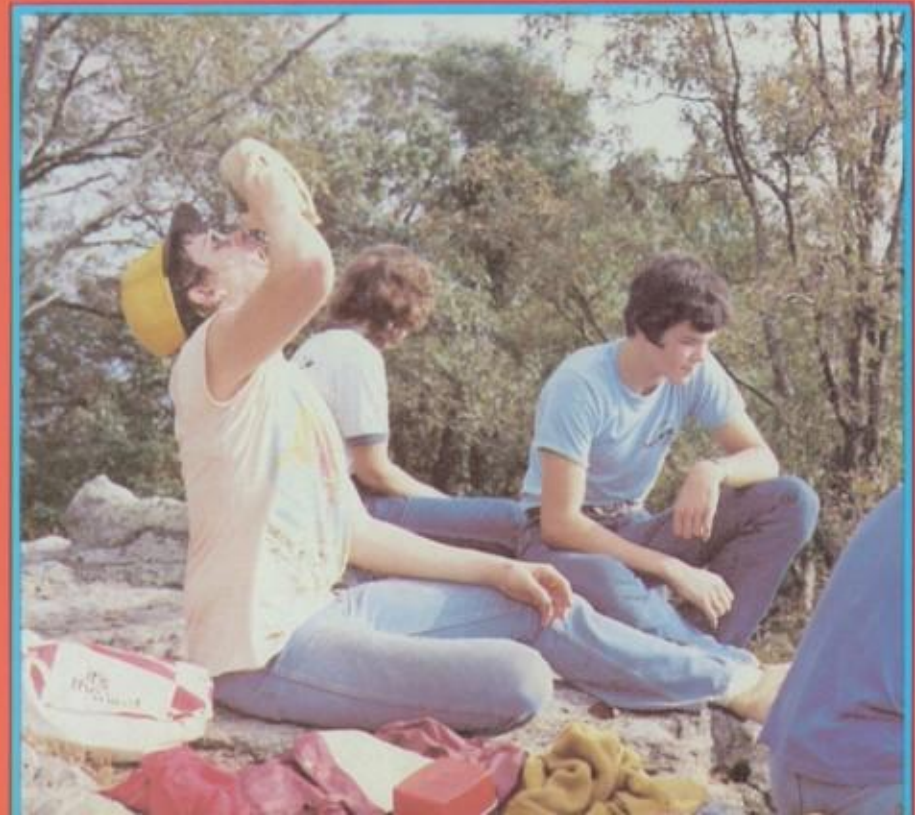

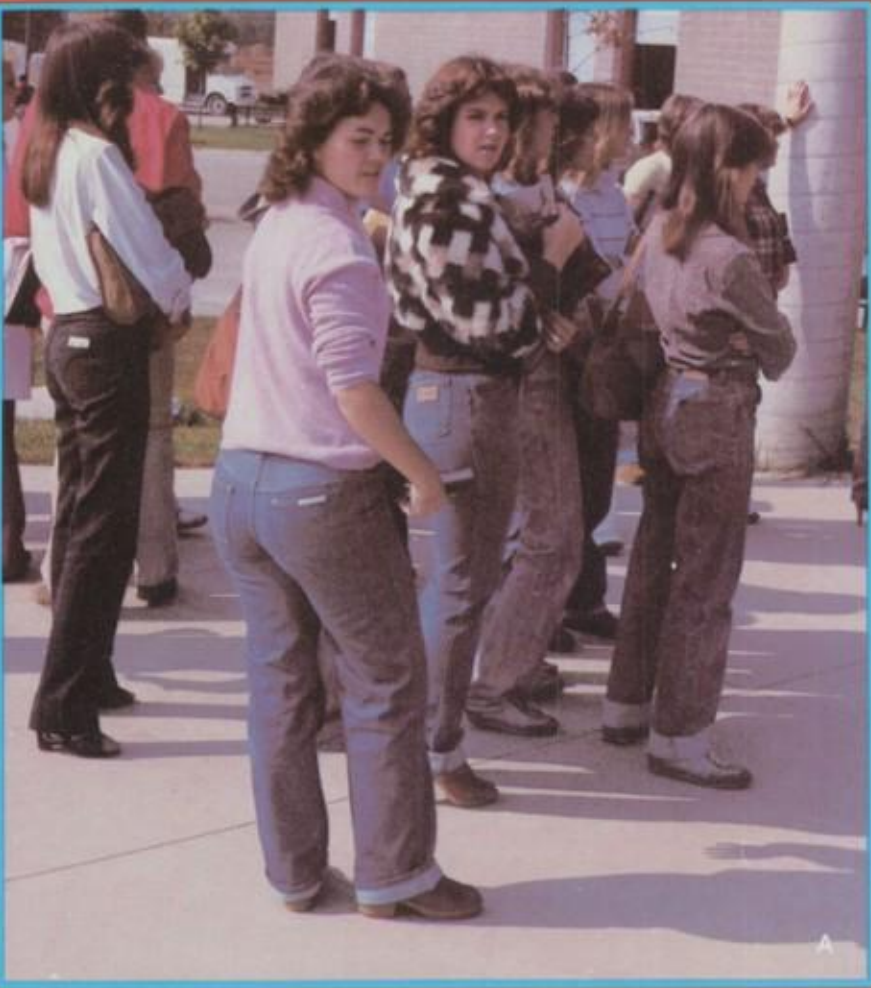

B David If they could see me now, that ole gang of mine, they'd never speak to me again

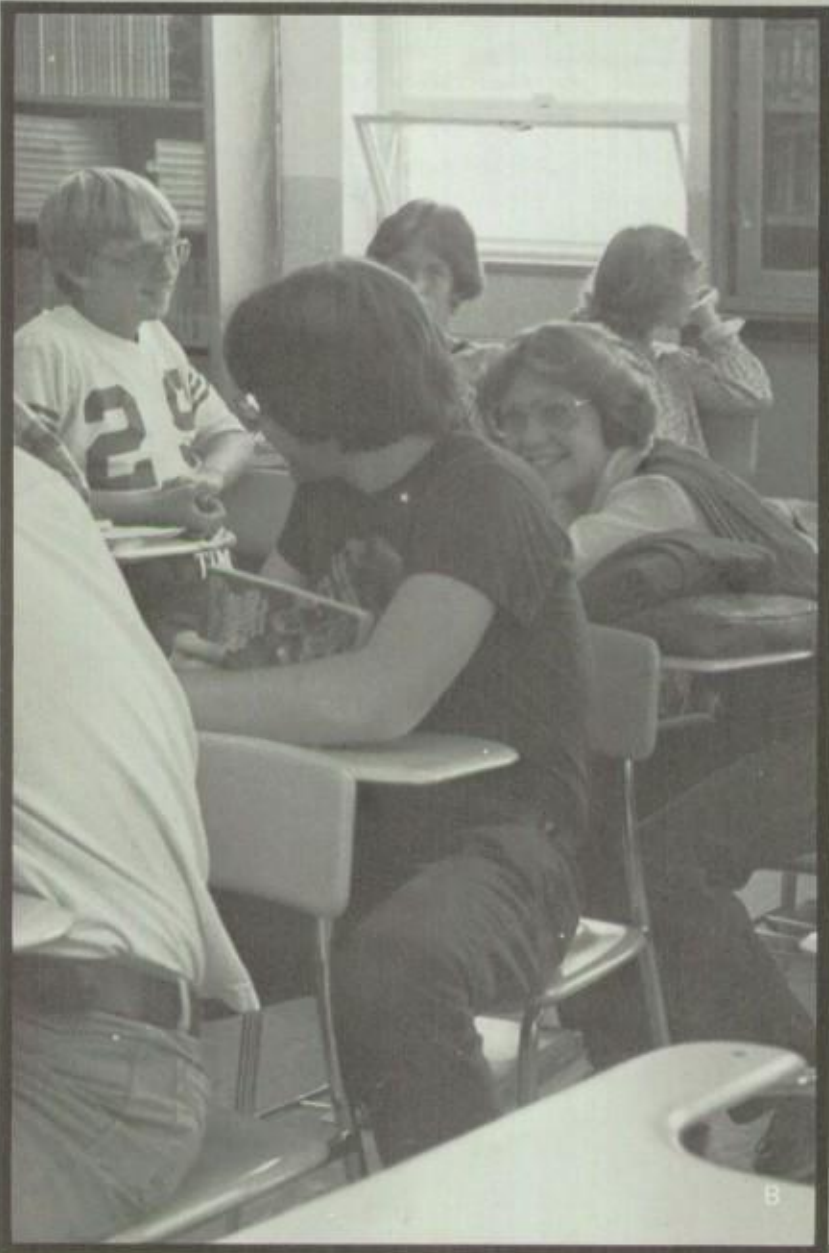

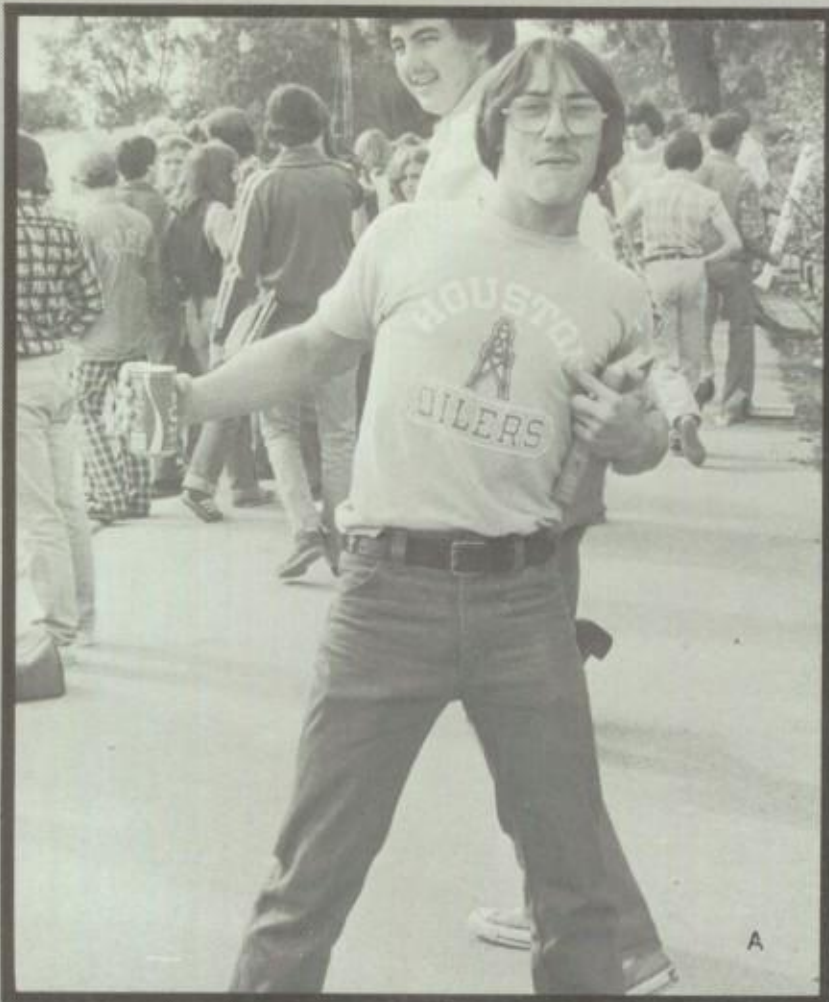

C Lyons Craig, what are you doing dressed up like that?

Craig I'm trying to get voted Most Witty

D Debbie You know, I just realized how much I hate this place

- A. Tammy: What is that on the walk?
 Angie: I don't know, but it sure is disgusting.
- B. Jeff: So here I go happily off to class, with a song in my heart and the breeze in my hair.
- C. Mr. Lynch turns his head as Mr. Morgan attends to unfinished business.
- D. Cathy: Work, work, work that's all I ever do.

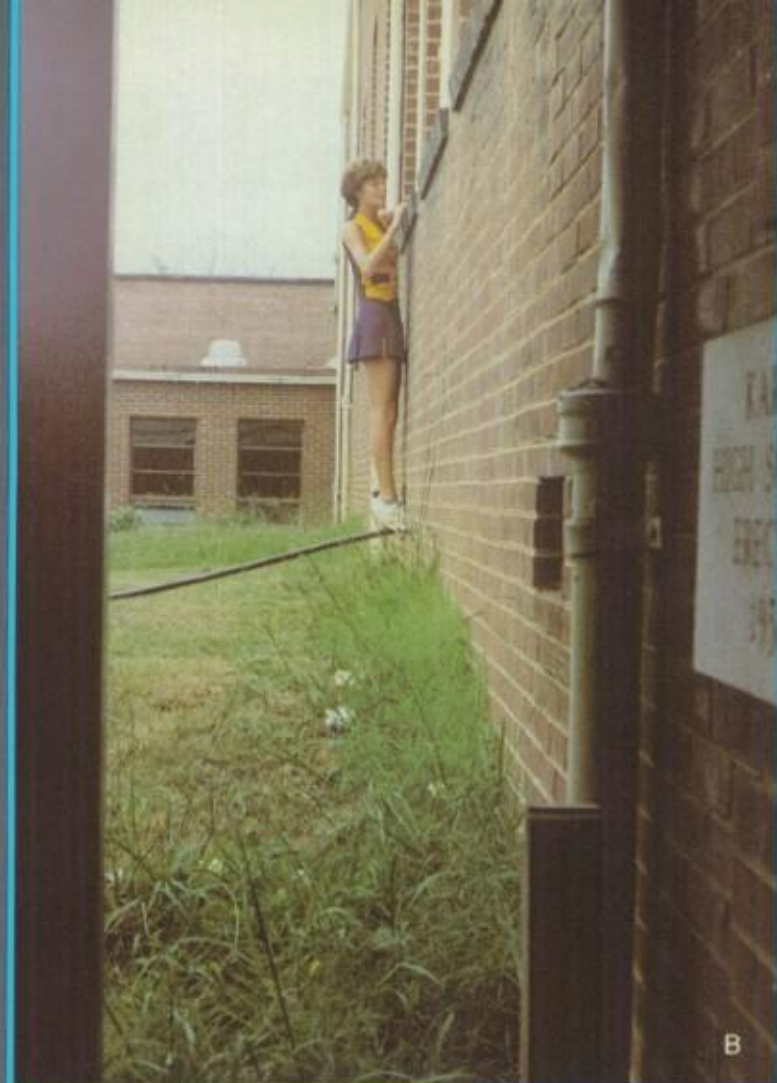

A. Bowden: Come on ... I dare ya ... I dare ya ...
 Chuck: I ought to ... I ought to ...
 B. Kevin: Darlene, please stop!!
 Darlene: But Kevin you're so irresistible!

- A. Andrea (to herself): I've got to hurry up and get that last cupcake before Susan.
 Susan (to herself): I've got to eat the last cupcake before Becky gets it.
 Becky (to herself): I'm glad I'm holding a spare because something tells me that there is going to be a fight over that last cupcake.
- B. David: Hey, man, who is that dude? I know he can't be on our team.
 Bearden Player: I don't know I thought he was on your team.
- C. We're all in our places with bright shiney faces . . .

- A. Bob: Gee I wish I could see my knees — or at least my feet.
 B. Stephanie (very secretively): Psst, Hey Coach Sims, is it still on for tonight or eight?

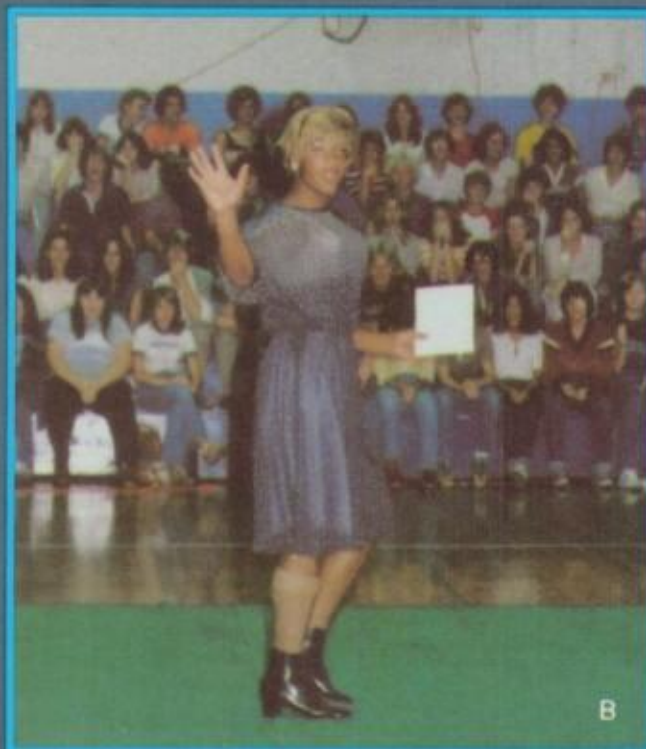

- C. Rusty: Come here kid, have I got a deal for you!
 D. Kim Wells: Oh No! We can't even score at practice.
 Terri: They are practicing for the game.

D

- A. Lance: But you said fiberglass didn't dent!
John: That's what you get for listening to me.
- B. Frank: I'd like to thank all the little people who have made this possible.
- C. Did you hear what one Burp said to the other?
Kenny: No, What?
Gower: Let's be stinkers and go out the other end.
- D. (Flint peers into a filled classroom and mutters half aloud.) Hmmm, no one in here fits the description.

- A. Jean, Gaye, Elizabeth: Hey, Mom, look what we caught!!!
Donny: Why me? Why is it always me?
- B. Frank and Mike: Alright, heads we win, tails you lose.
South Young: Sounds fair to us.
- C. Coach Sims: So after photosynthesis, the pistil becomes pollinated!
Lisa: What?!

OUR EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Danilo Galletto is our male exchange student this year from Brazil. He is a very witty guy with a great sense of humor. He enjoys playing soccer, football, and basketball, dancing, going to the movies, and disco music. Danilo seems to have fit in nicely with the American students of Karns High School. We will miss you when you go back to your home in Brazil.

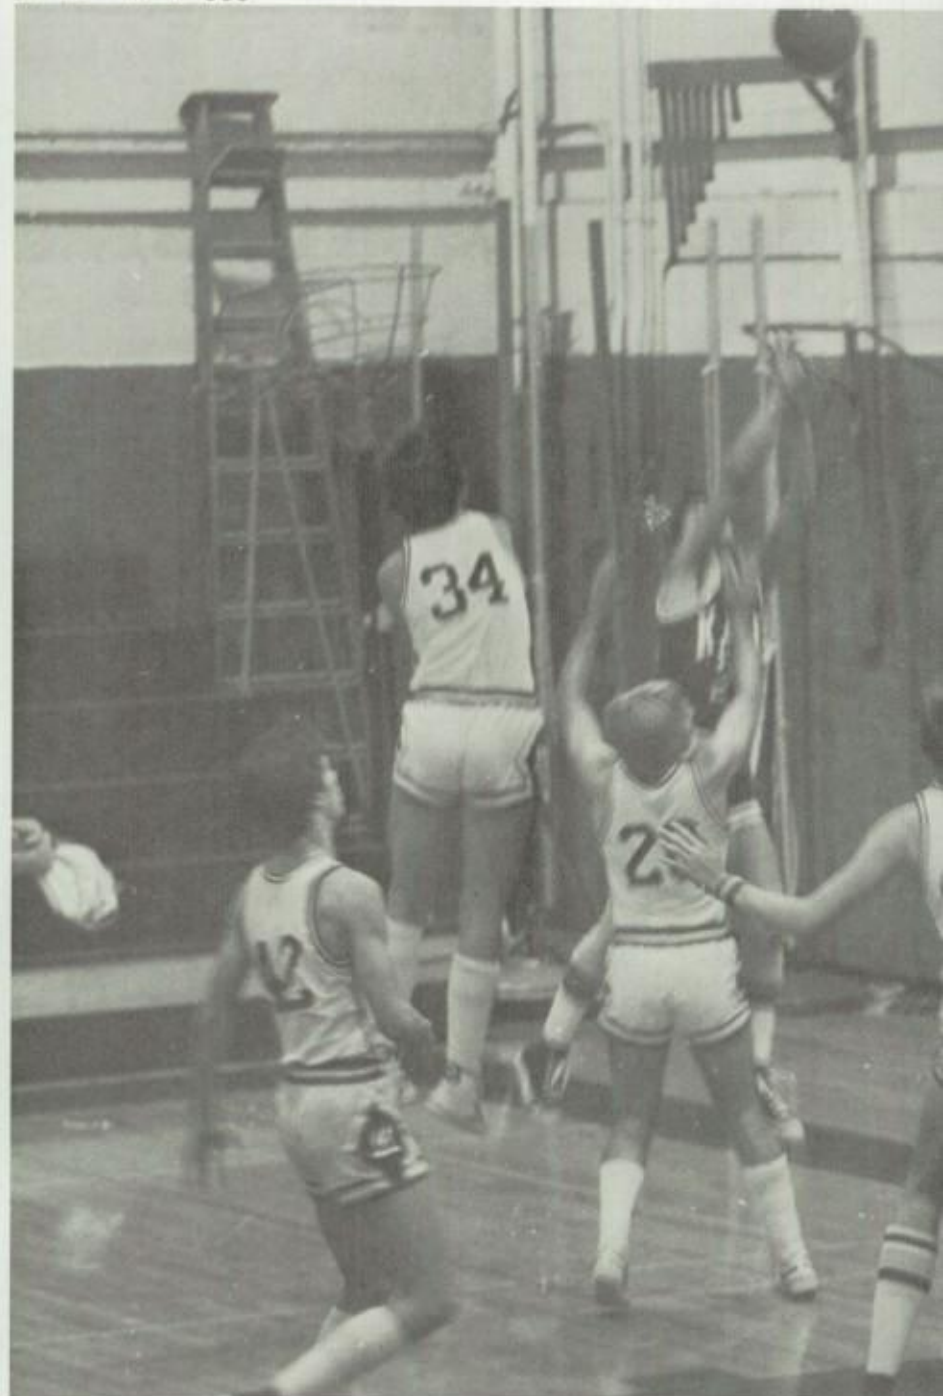

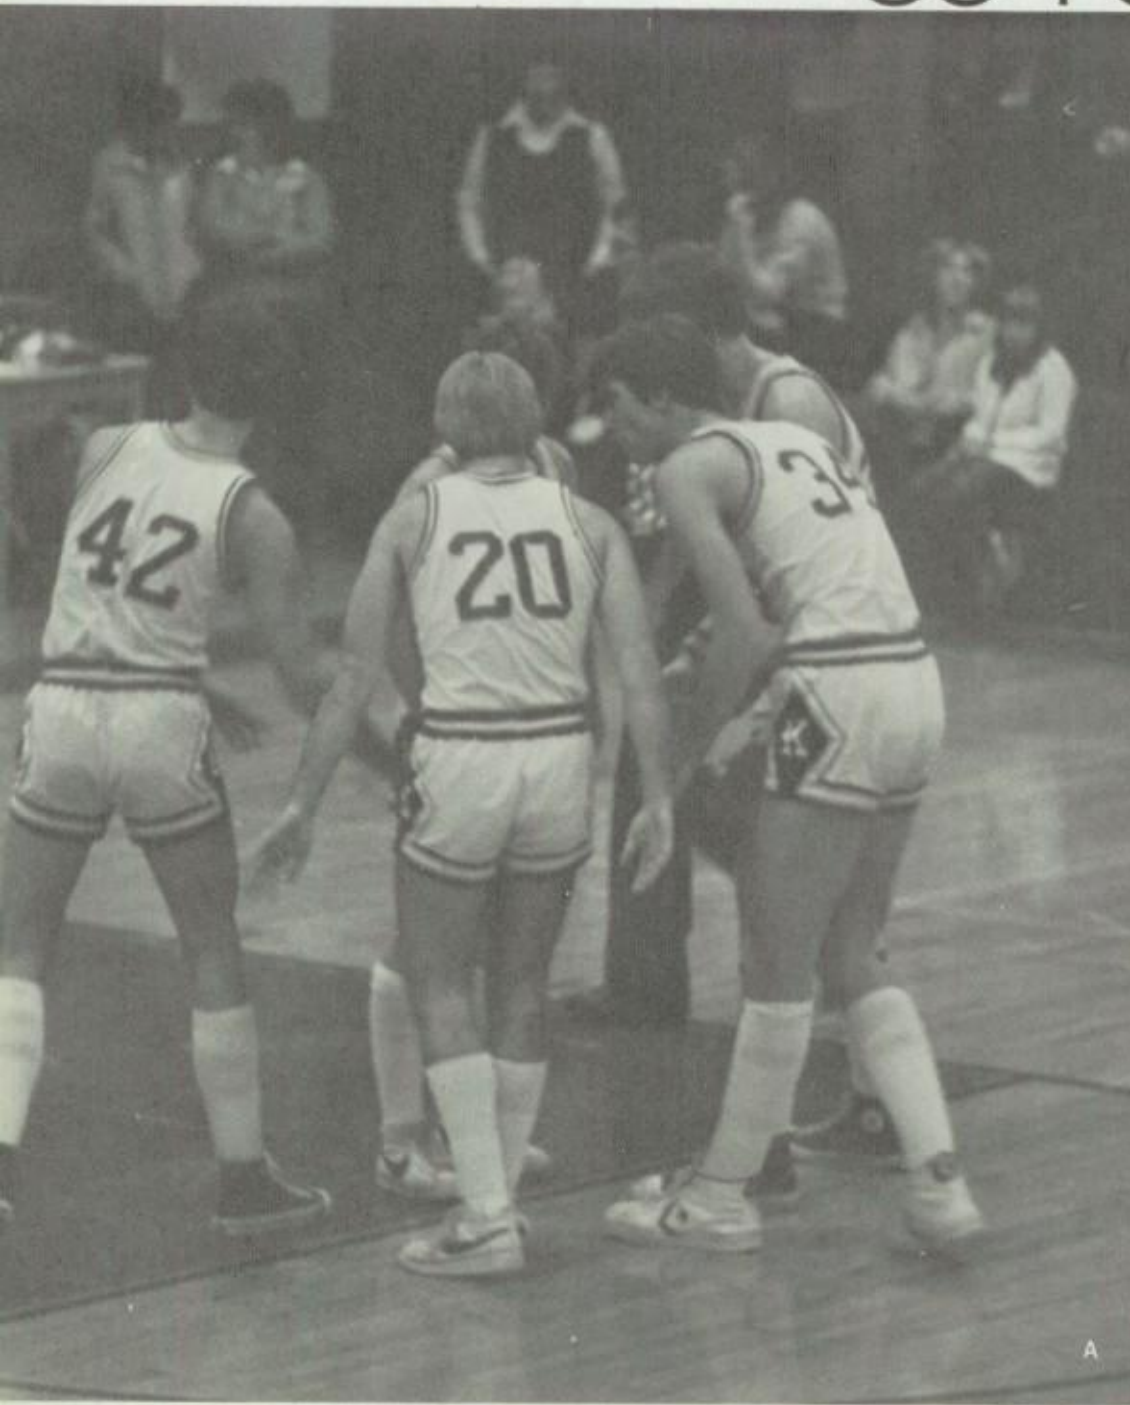

Tan Choo Khim, known by us as Khim is our female exchange student from Malaysia. She is a sweet girl who is loved by everyone she meets. Khim enjoys the quiet times in her life. Sitting and thinking are her two favorite things. We have enjoyed her stay here at Karns and hope that she will remember us all even after she goes home. We will miss you, Khim.

The Beaverettes reached a goal that they had set for themselves two years earlier by qualifying to play in the state tournament. Not satisfied with having just qualified, the girls decided their next goal would be to win the state championship. Prior to departure to Murfreesboro the team was treated to a "Victory Dinner" at Peggy's restaurant by the Karns administration. School superintendent Earl Hoffmeister attended to wish the Beaverettes Good Luck! The Beaverette's were STATE BOUND!

A. Pat Harmaker goes high for shot in the lane against Maplewood. B. Nancy Caldwell does a good job on the boards. C. Lynn Beth Penny tells referee to "get it right." D. Kim Wells, team's leading free throw shooter, gets ready to put another point on the Beaverette's side of the board. E. Kim Bittle, field goal percentage leader for AAA teams in state tournament, tries to score two more.

Hatmaker Scores At Buzzer — Karns 55 — Maplewood 54

Karns' opening game in the state tournament was a cliff-hanger won on a last-second shot by Pat Hatmaker, leading scorer in the tournament. The shot touched off a wild celebration among Karns players and fans. The girls were one step closer to their goal of "State Champs."

The Beaverettes next defeated Carver 73-53 in the semi-finals. The Beaverettes had made it to the state FINALS.

Kim Bittle: It was a great honor to be on the all-tournament team and I'm glad I had the opportunity to represent K.H.S.

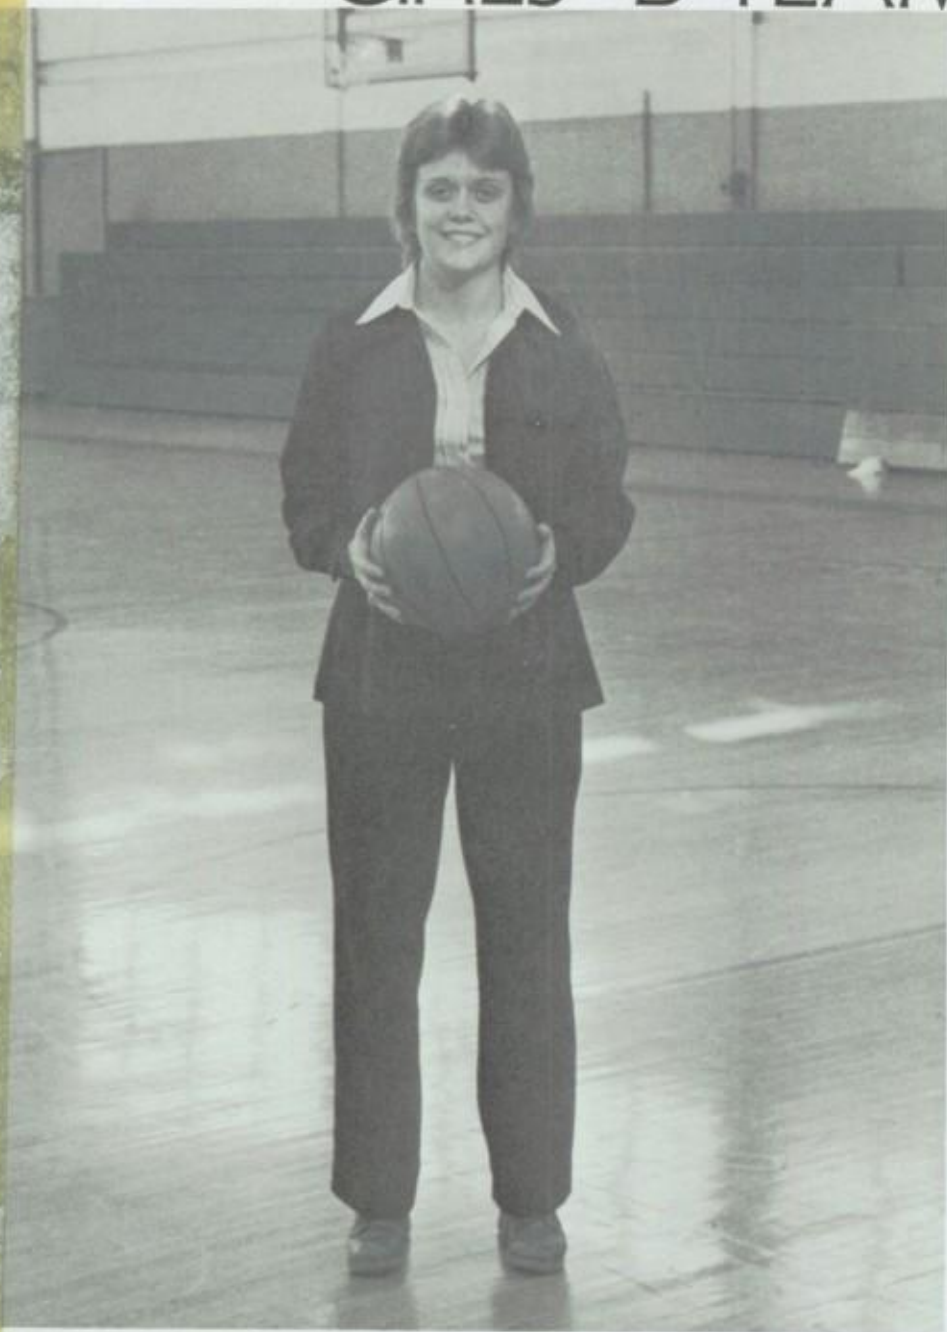

A. Cheerleaders yell as Beaverettes take floor for final game against Pearl. B. Team cheers as Pat is named MVP for the tournament. C. Kim Bittle was named to the all-tournament team along with Pat. D. Karns' seniors have a 4-year record of 106-19. D. Karns had excellent crowd support all year. F. The Beaverettes show off their State Runner-up trophy after arriving back at the school.

The Beaverettes ran up against stiff competition in the State Finals in the form of Nashville Pearl as they were defeated 55-44. The girls had put together the most successful season ever for a Knoxville girls' basketball team with a record of 33-4 and a runner-up finish in the State Tournament. The season was a fitting finale to the very fine high-school careers of Karns' outstanding seniors — Kim Bittle, Pat Harmaker, Lynn Beth Penny and Kim Wells. Although they did not reach their ultimate goal of "State Champs," the girls realize that they did their best and played their hardest. "State-Runner-up" is better than that achieved by all other AAA teams in the state, except one.

Nancy Caldwell: I believe that we were sadder over the fact that it was our seniors' last game in the blue and gold than we were over our defeat. It is hard to lose the four finest teammates you've ever had.

GIRLS' B-TEAM BASKETBALL

Bottom row: Pat Hatmaker, Kim Bittle, Kim Wells, Lynn Beth Penny.

Kim Bittle — A good roundballer with a lot of potential. She has great strength when it comes to rebounding. Kim has a good personality and gets along well with others. "Good luck, Kim"

Lynn Beth Penny — Lynn Beth is a fast player. She can really move the ball down the court. Her speed can get her out of tight spots. She is a great person. "Good luck, Lynn Beth".

Pat Hatmaker — Pat is all star material. She averages 25 points a game. Pat has a great jump shot. She is admired by all. "Best of luck, Pat".

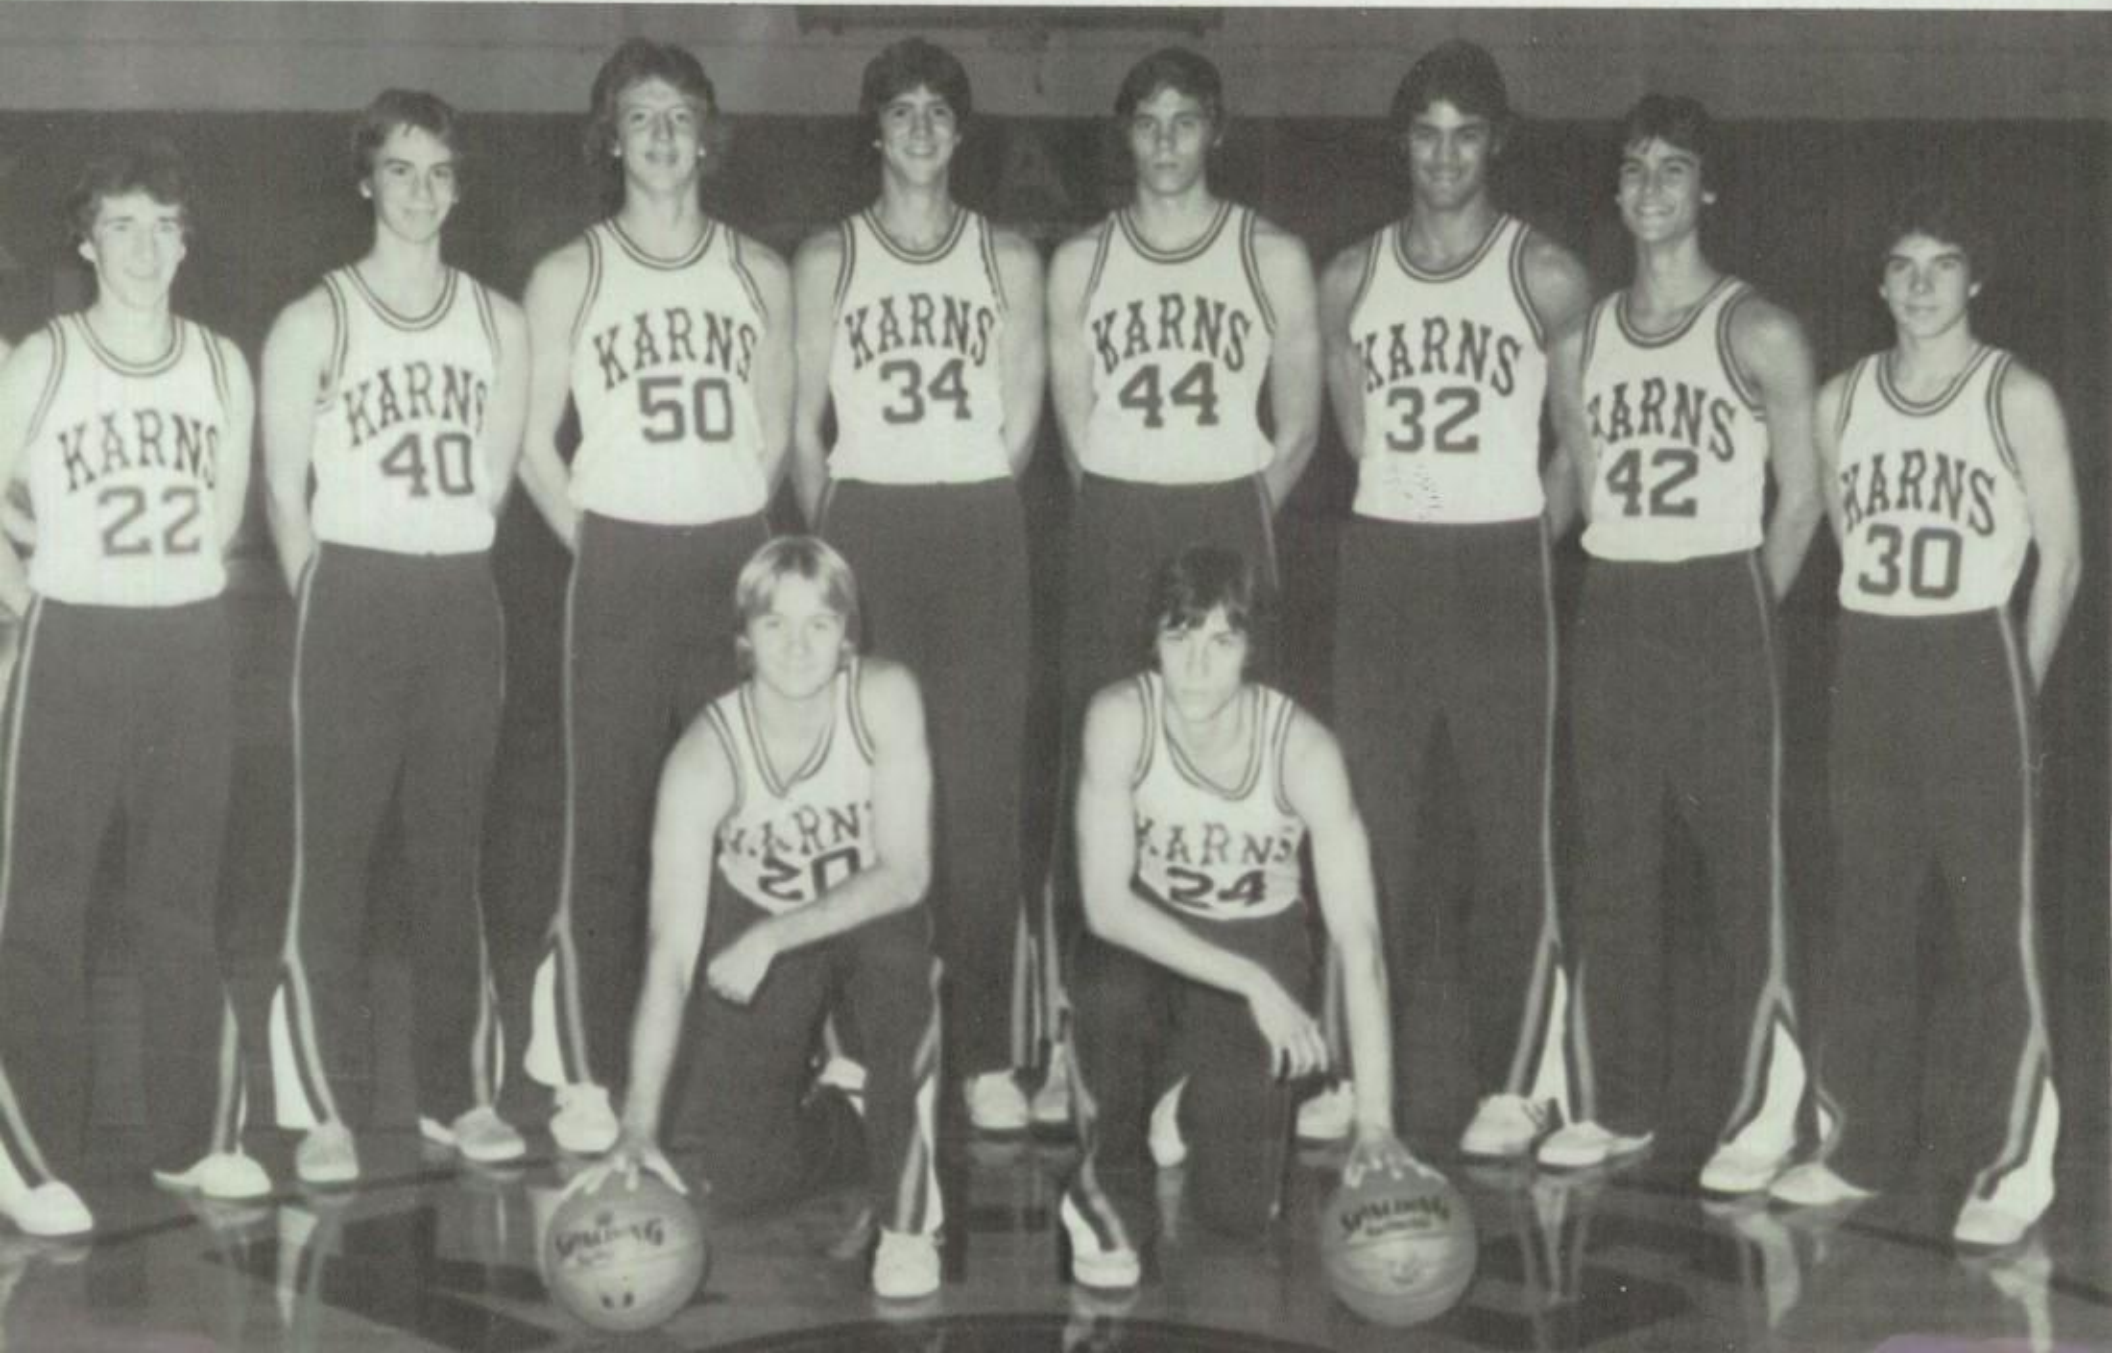

Kim Wells — Kim has a shot that can be very intimidating. She plays the field good. She has a good attitude on and off the court. We hope the best for her. "Lots of luck, Kim".

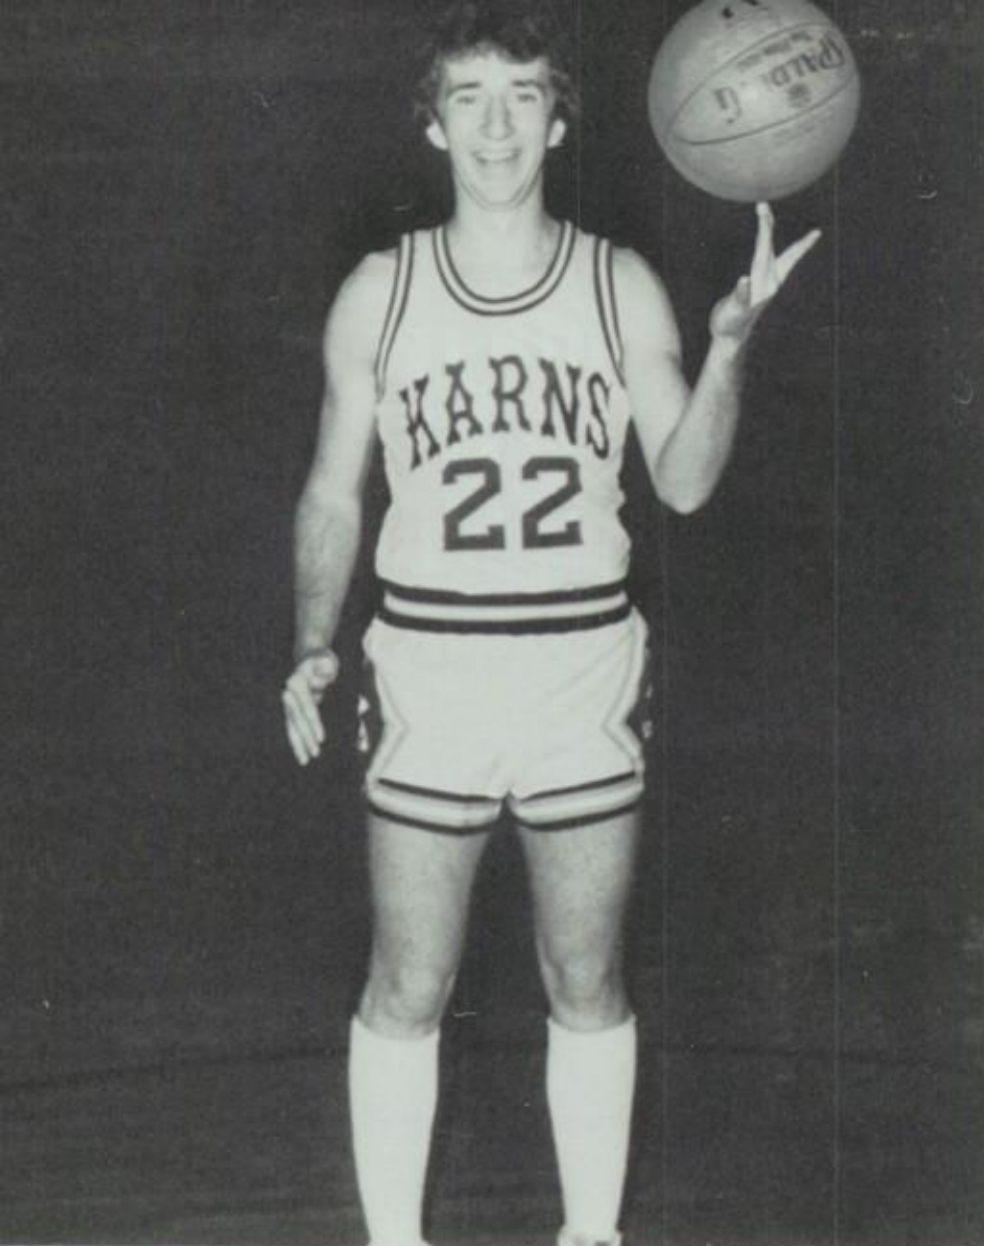

BOYS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

Greg "Spot" Bruce: height 5'10", weight 150 lbs. He's a real asset to the team. Greg is a good player with a great attitude toward the game and life as well. Best of luck, Greg!

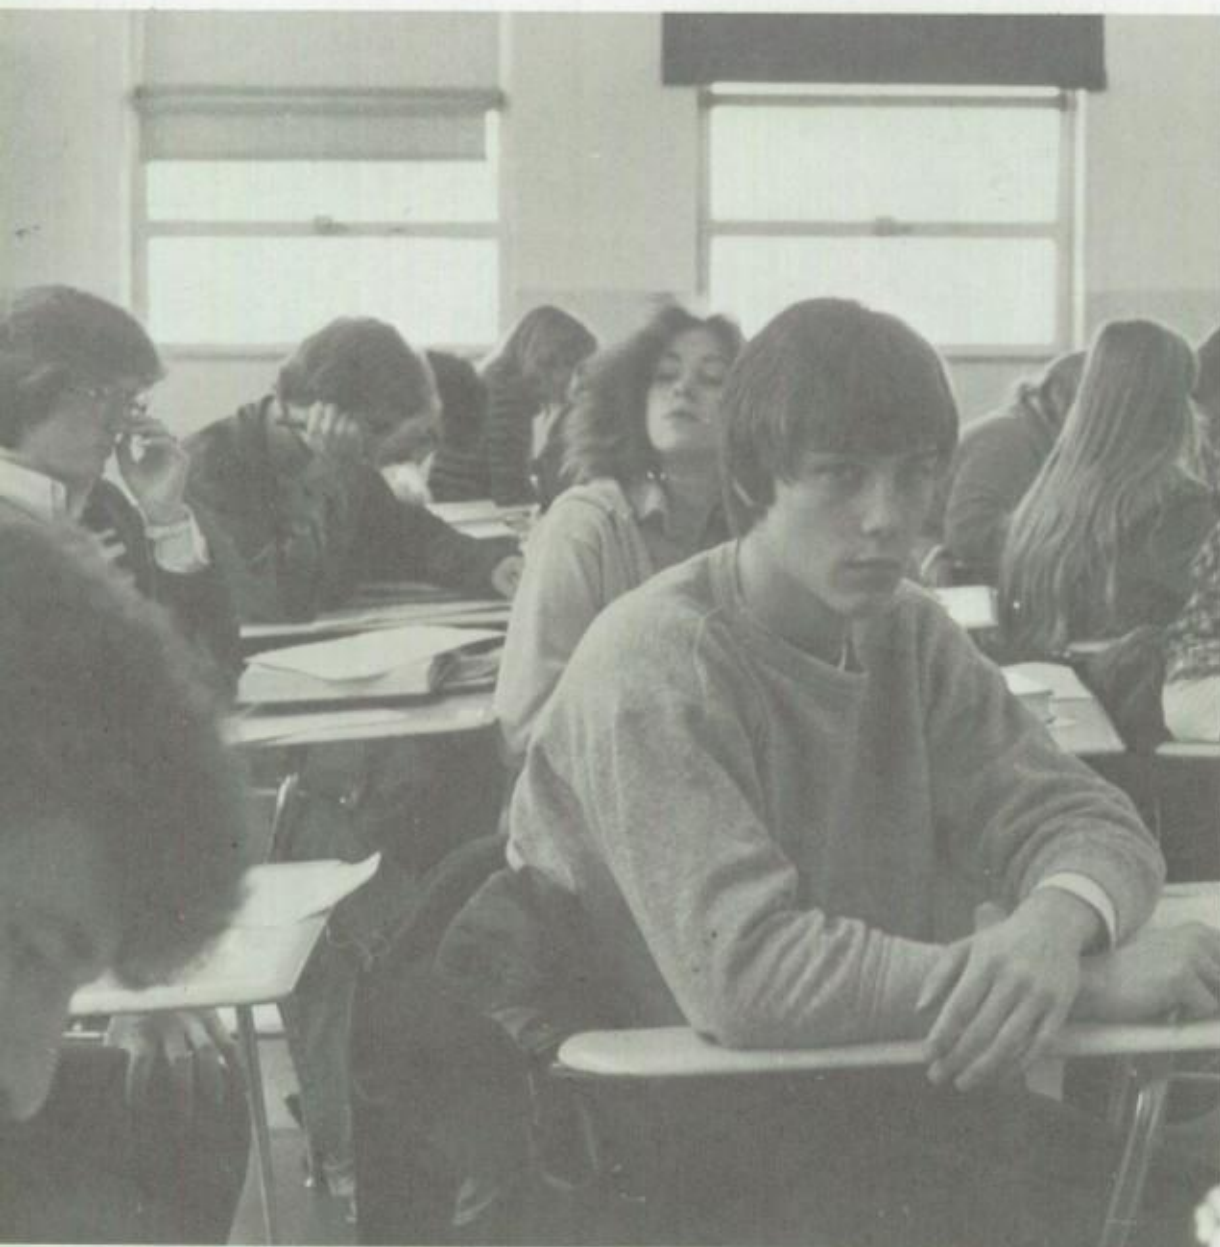

Kent "Bound Dog" Settlemeyer: height 6'5", weight 200 lbs. He is a strong rebounder. Kent plays underneath where points are available. He also gets along well with the other team members. Lots of luck!

Kevin "Black Dog" Campbell: height 5'11", weight 165 lbs. Kevin is one of the team captains this year. He has driven the team on with his ability to lead. Good luck, Kevin!

Robbie "Bird Dog" Stephens: height 6'5", weight 205 lbs. He's a first year roundballer who came on strong. He is a good underneath man with the ability to clean the boards. Best wishes Robbie!

Top — Kevin Campbell, Karns High athlete, doing what he does best.
Bottom — They call it that "Good ole Mountain Dew."

INTRODUCING . . .

Anne Walton

- A. Anne Walton is our new librarian and co-sponsor of the Annual Staff. She graduated from Georgia College and received her master's degree from the University of Tennessee. Her interests include camping, reading, music, and needlepoint. She likes Karns and looks forward to getting to know the students. Welcome Ms. Walton!

Rick Carhey

- B. Rick Carhey, our new Health teacher, is also a new member of the Karns High coaching staff. He graduated from Powell High School and Carson Newmar College. He is a leather artist and he enjoys all types of sports. He likes Karns because it is a growing community. Welcome Coach Carhey!

Nancy Helton

- C. Nancy Helton, a welcome addition to the social studies staff, graduated from Central High School and the University of Tennessee. She enjoys many family activities which include camping, ballgames, picnics, and family gatherings. She also enjoys sewing, golf, and needlework. She likes Karns and thinks the kids are great and the teachers are fine people.

Kerry Howland

- D. Karns would like to welcome Kerry Howland to our foreign language department. She came to U.T. from Chicago on a swimming scholarship. She loves teaching at Karns because the students have positive attitudes and there are many different kinds of people. Among her interests are water skiing, writing, and coaching swimming.

Rick Kallstrom

A. Rick Kallstrom is our new social studies teacher and sponsor of the Drama Club. He is a graduate of U.T. He enjoys sports, church activities, playing musical instruments, and working with young people. He enjoys being at Karns and admires how the young "ladies and gentlemen are adjusted to the school and how they seem to enjoy it". Welcome Mr. Kallstrom!

Jane Morrow

B. Jane Morrow is a new addition to our Business Department. She graduated from Appalachian State University in Boone, North Carolina. Her interests include swimming, jogging, biking, and tennis. "I am very glad to be here at Karns," says Ms. Morrow, and we are very glad to have you.

Marilyn McClain

C. Marilyn McClain, our new basketball and volleyball coach, graduated from Powell High School and the University of Tennessee. She enjoys teaching Science and is very glad to be teaching in high school instead of elementary school. Welcome Ms. McClain!

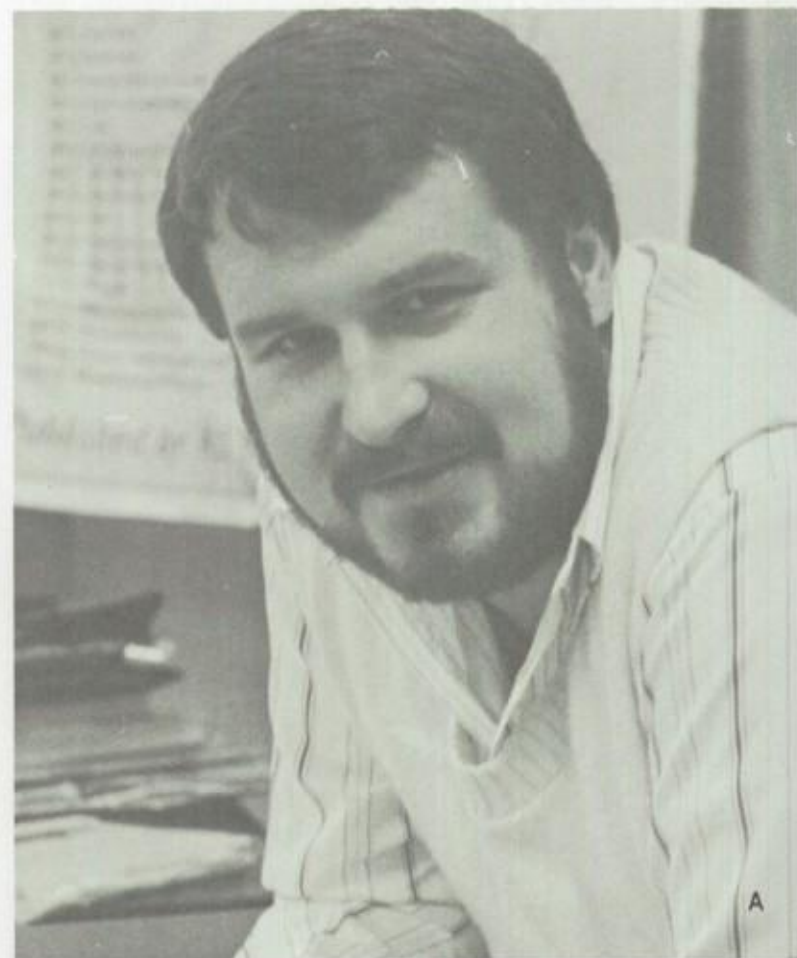

Bennie Lyle

D. This year Karns welcomes Bennie Lyle to our English Department and our football coaching staff. Though a graduate of Doyle High, he enjoys the people here at Karns and admires the way the students have adjusted to the conditions of the school. He is a graduate of the University of Tennessee. Mr. Lyle has a wide variety of interests ranging from drawing and writing to all kinds of sports activities. "You name it, I like it!"

Ray Riley

- A. Ray Riley is a new addition to our coaching staff. He graduated from Central High School and the University of Tennessee. Coach Riley enjoys all kinds of sports. He likes the school and admires its close relationship with the community. Welcome Coach Riley!

Glenna Manning

- B. Glenna Manning, our new business teacher, says she enjoys being at Karns. She attended U.T. and obtained a BS in Business Administration. She enjoys playing tennis, softball, and doing embroidery. Even though Ms. Manning spent her high school days as a Farragut Admiral, she says, "I may convert to a Beaver yet". Welcome Ms. Manning!

Carol McCarter

- C. We would like to welcome Carol McCarter, our new resource teacher. She graduated from Young High School, the University of Tennessee, and she obtained a M.Ed. from Georgia State University. She likes to cook, sew, read, and ride motorcycles.

Gwen Harrell

- D. Gwen Harrell filled in for Mr. Lynch during his absence at the end of last year. We would like to welcome her back as Supervisor of In-school Suspension. She obtained her BS and MS from the University of Tennessee. Her interests include sewing and reading. She likes how the common students cooperate. Welcome back Ms. Harrell!

1979-80 K.H.S. Band

The Karns High School Band, under the direction of Jack Thomas, has worked exceptionally hard this year to receive excellent ratings on all competitions. This year's band competitions have taken them to Oxford, Alabama, and Cleveland, Tennessee for the Tri-State Band Festival in which they received a superior rating. The band has also participated in the annual Knoxville Christmas Parade and the Dogwood Arts Festival. The Karns High Band has represented our school and the community well.

Mr. Thomas: NEXT!

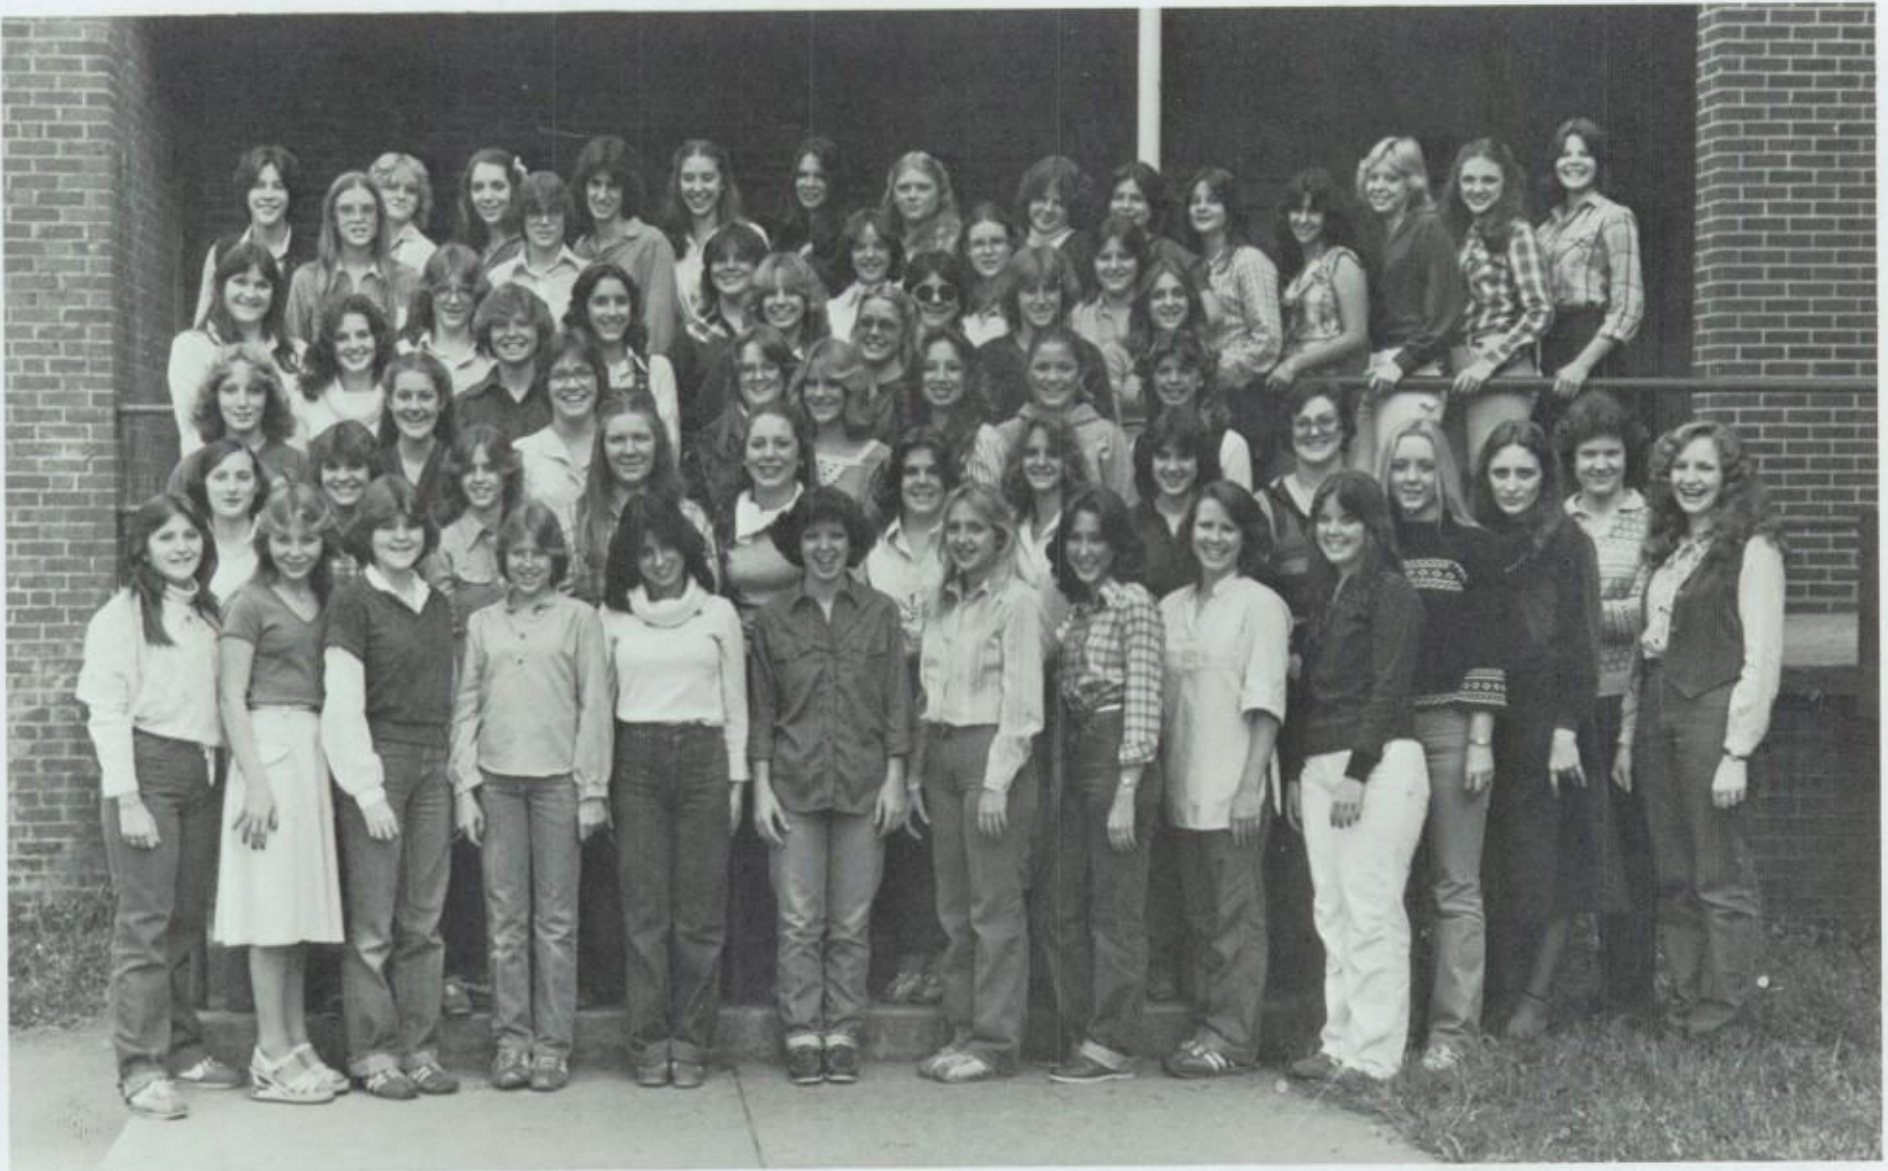

The Karns High Choral program, under the direction of Luther Johnson, is composed of the Male Chorus, Female Chorus, Choir, and Ensemble. The Male Chorus is open to any boy in grades nine through twelve and the Female Chorus is open to any girl in grades nine through twelve. The most advanced choral unit is the Choir. The Choir is made up of students in grades ten through twelve who have passed an audition. The Ensemble is made up of people in the music survey class who are also advanced vocally.

Programs performed by the Choral groups this year included the Pop Music Variety Show, the Christmas Concert, and the East Tennessee Vocal Association Choral Festival.

THE PLAY IN REVIEW

Well, so ends another school year at Karns High. This past year brought a lot of changes to us; a new Vice Principal, a new Assistant Vice Principal, new rules, the birth of the Tobacco Use Area, and a new cafeteria, to name just a few. The whole world entered into a new decade with high hopes for the eighties. In these last few pages we have included some of your thoughts about the school, movies, music, predictions for the eighties and memories of the seventies.

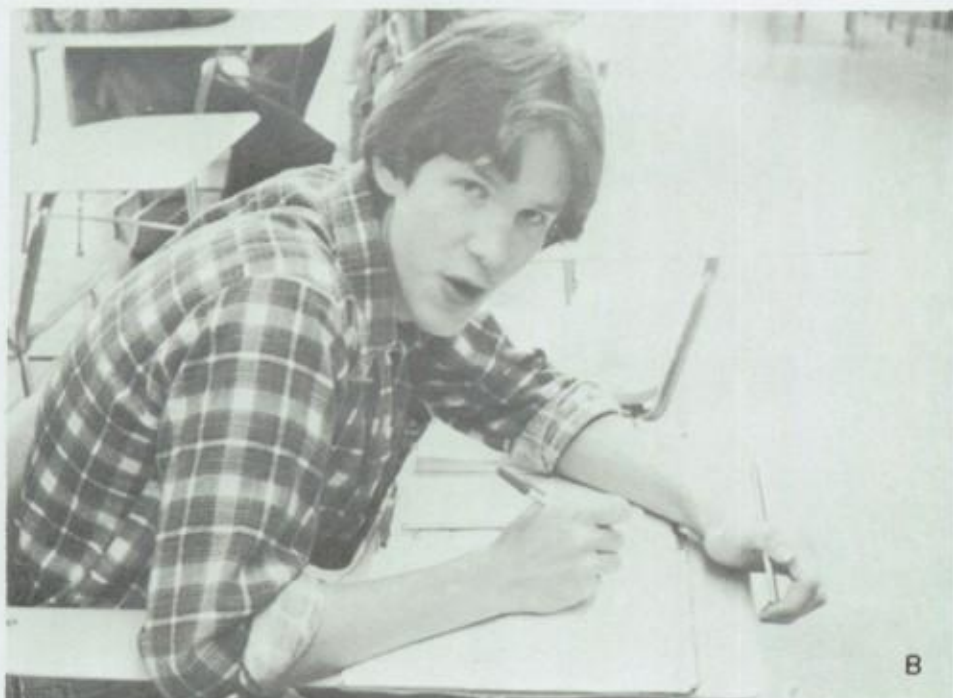

- A. Penny: Maybe if I don't look at him, he'll go away.
Mendy: Nope, He's still there.
- B. Patti Pittman and Andy Murphy can think of places, other than school, they'd rather be.

A. Patrick: No chewing tobacco, huh? We'll see about that.

Quote:

School would be better if we only had to have two years of English and if we had thirty-five minutes between classes.
Patrick Lloyd

- B. Matthew: I told you that I was ambidextrous, but you wouldn't believe me.
- C. So this is our Band Captain, a picture of discipline!!
- D. Mr. Lyon: And this is another miracle of science that Karns High is proud to have — a microphone.

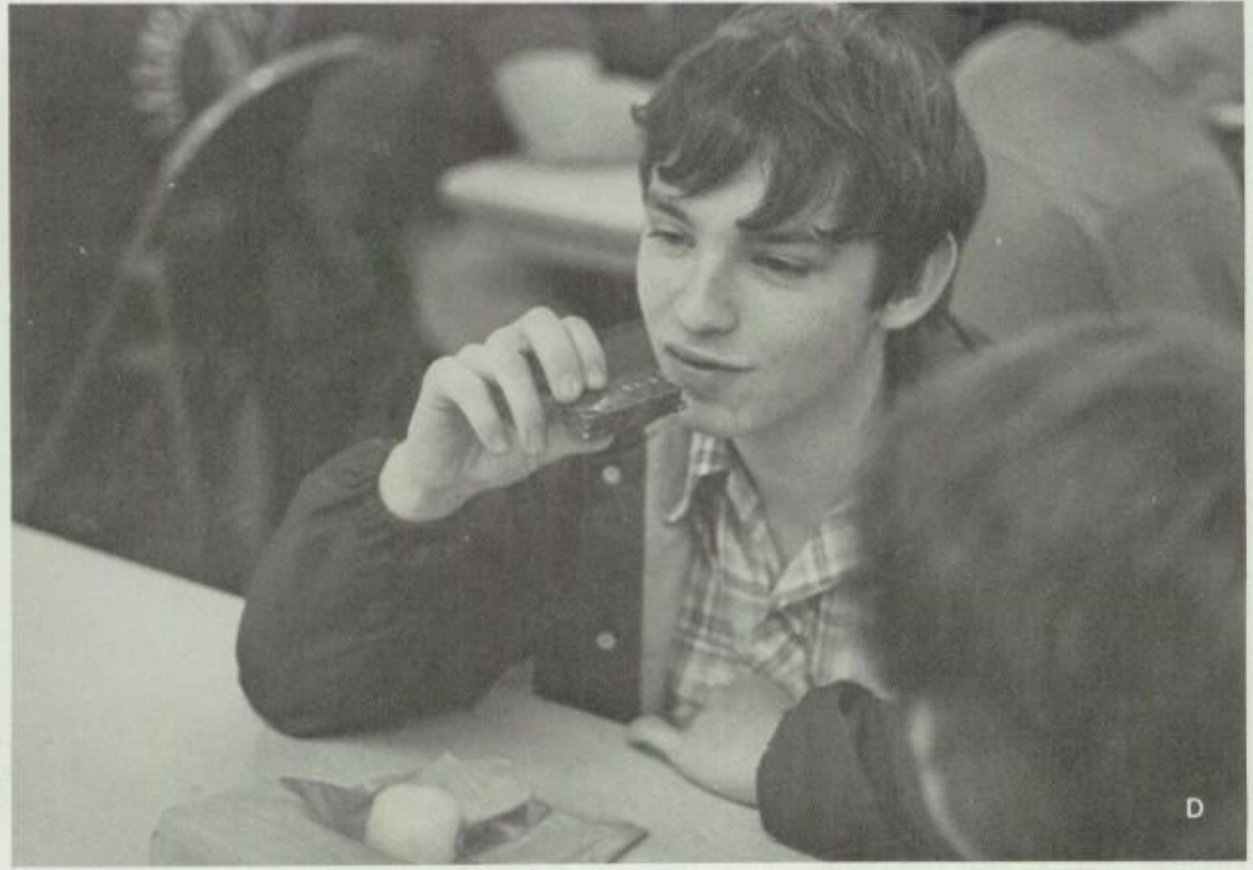

A. Neil: Oh No!! You never should have opened that door!!
 B. JoAnna: Well I don't know, I think a little wallpaper would be nice.
 C. Disco Coke Machine I don't like the new cafeteria — dirty tables, germs, too many people walking around. I'd rather eat at Wendy's. Neil Parkman

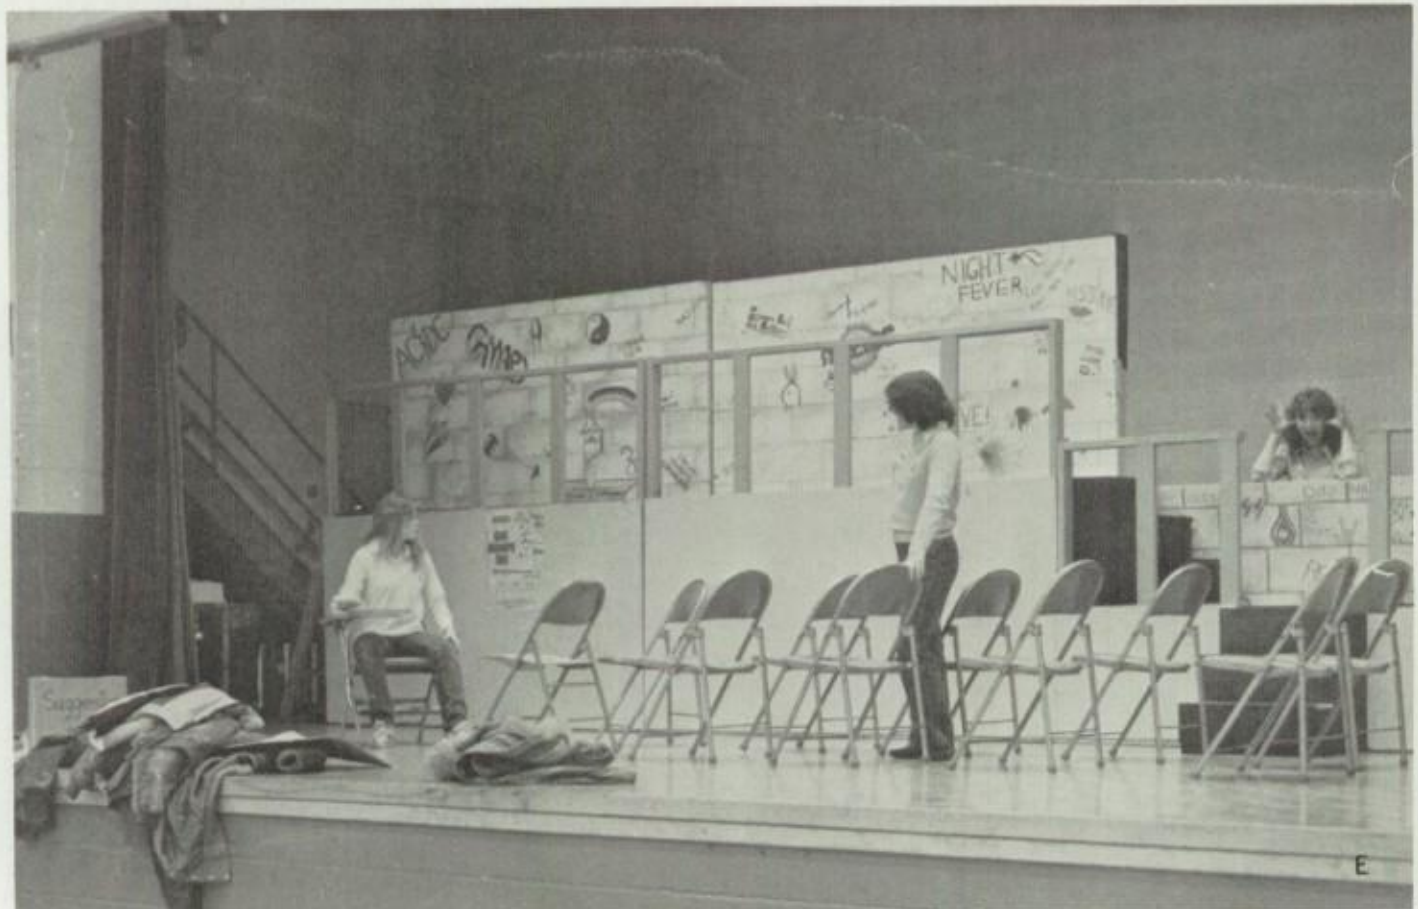

- A. Mike: Whatever he has in that Dr. Pepper sure does taste good.
- B. The Karns High Sweet Adelines.
- C. Mr. Johnson: Now on the count of three everyone switch seats.
- D. Paul: Who, Me? A draft dodger? NEVER!

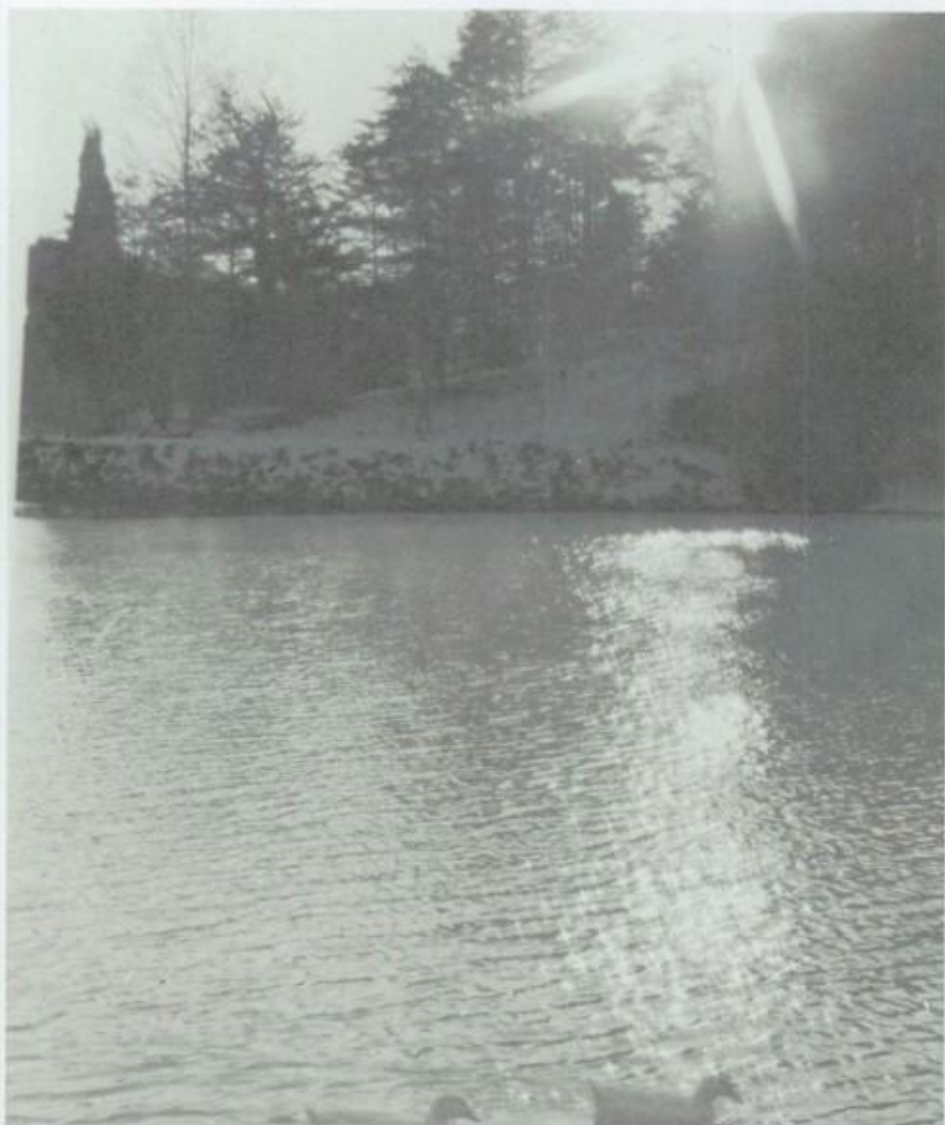

I will defend my country no matter where we fight, from the Halls of Montezuma to the Ayatollah's Bathroom. Paul Sims.

- A. Ms. Harvey's class, a growing ground for future lobaromies.
- B. Wayne: That's O.K. Frank, you don't have to open the door.
- C. Tommy: This really isn't as fun as it looks.
- D. Craig: YUM, I can hardly wait to bire into this delightfully "unusual" concoction.
- E. Cindy: I've got to get out of here before I go beserk!!

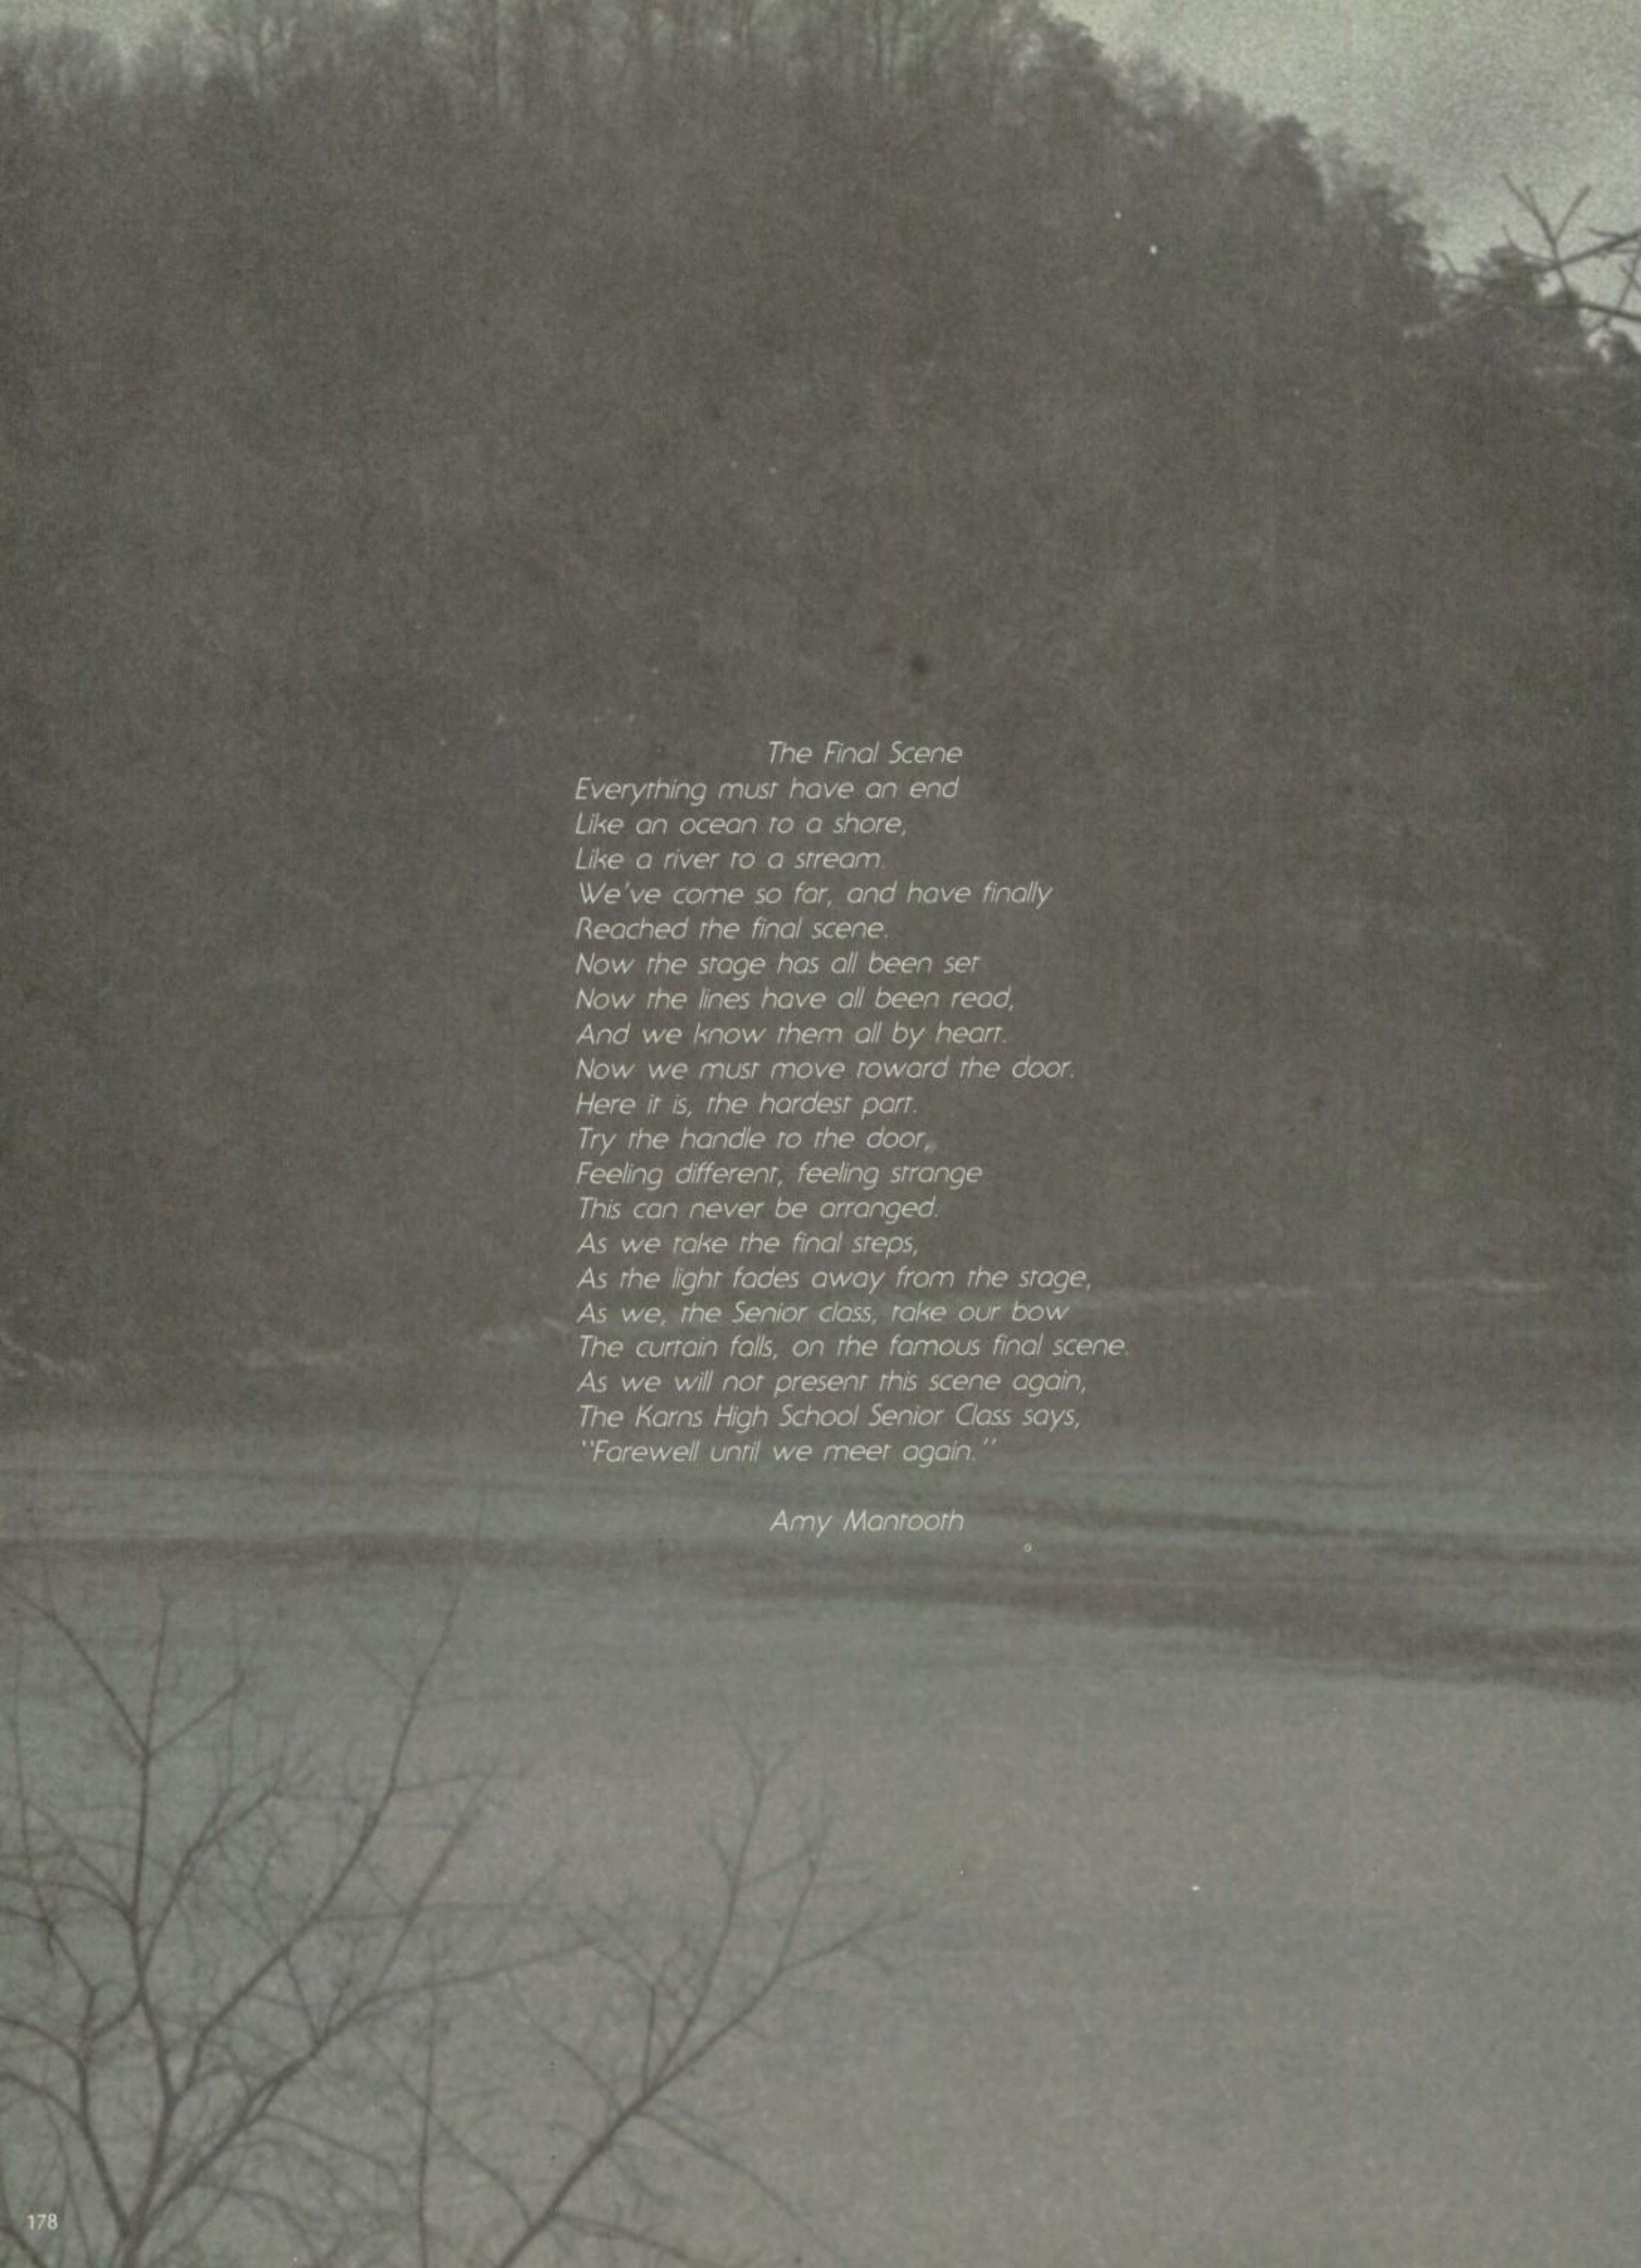

- A. David: Is it a bird? Is it a plane?
 Amy: I don't know what it is, but it sure is weird!!
- B. Marty: Check out what just walked in the lodge.
 Randy: If it's something gross then I don't want to look.
- C. Sherri: I know I'm supposed to be stretching, but it looks so painful.

I think we have one of the greatest athletic programs. The coaches really work with the kids and everyone tries really hard to be the best. Sherri Linkous

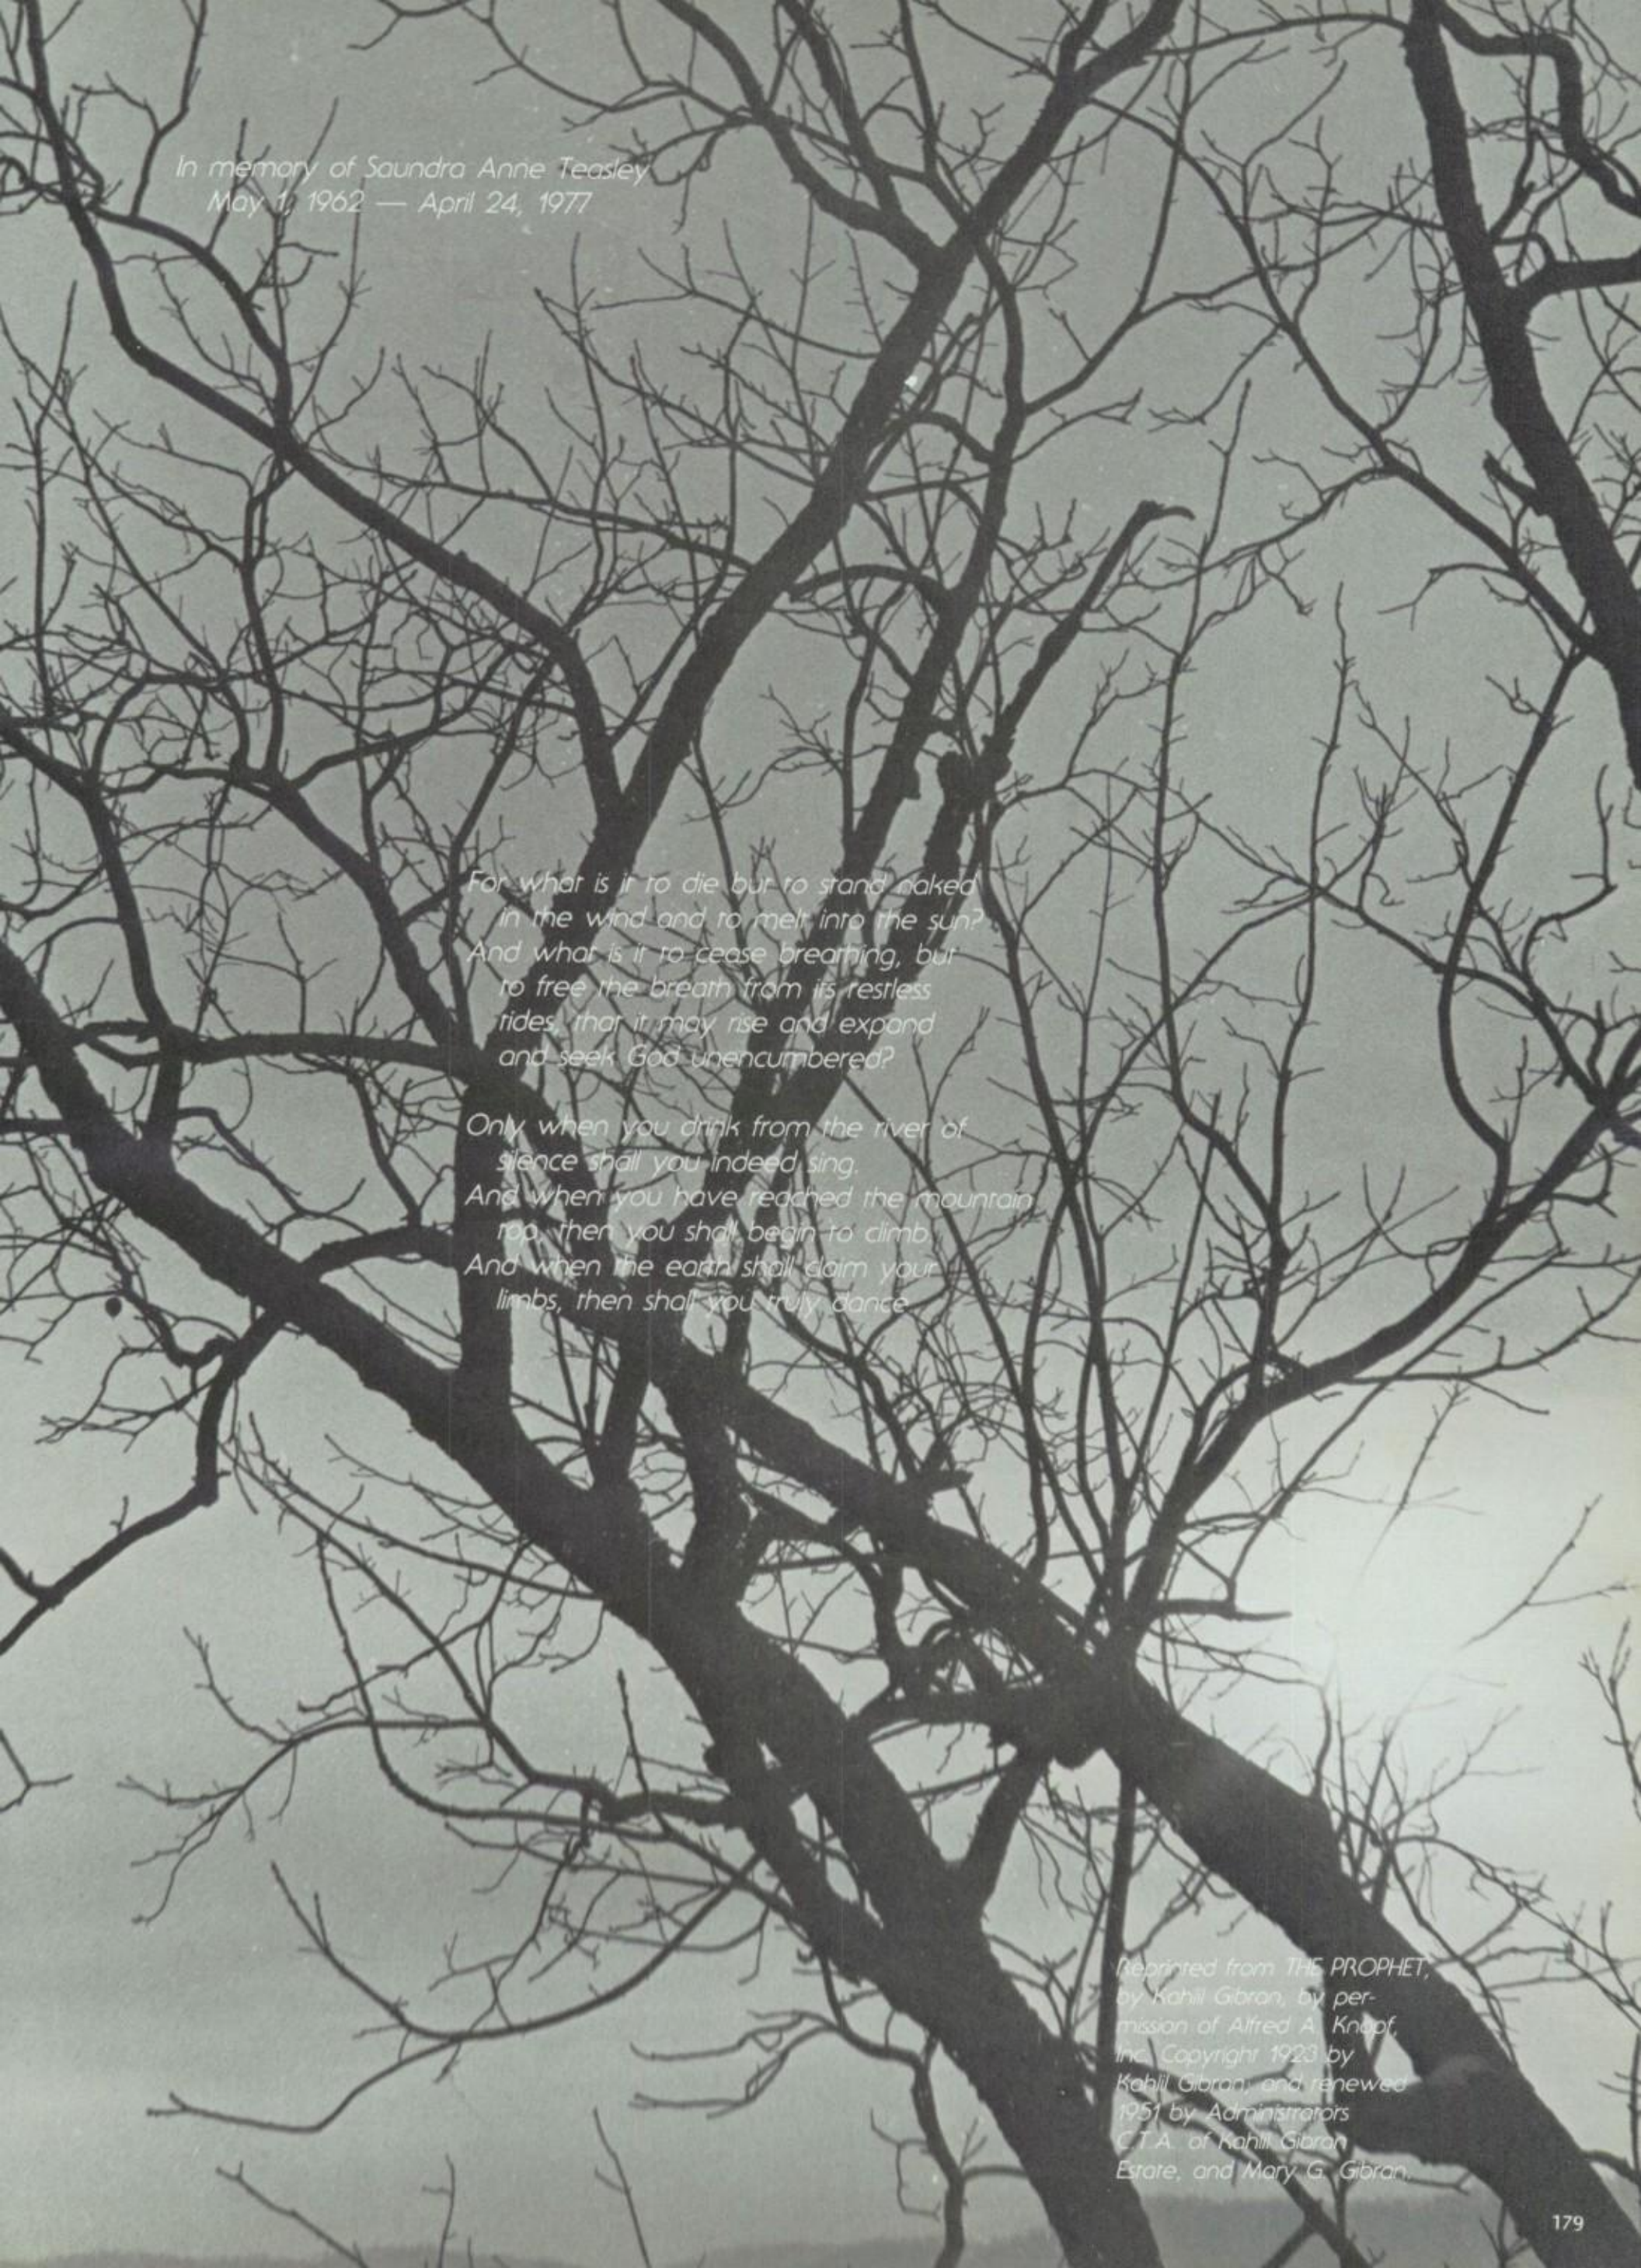

Flint: Well, the time has come for me to leave Karns High. I have reached the conclusion that the man I am looking for is not to be found around here. At least I accomplished something from all this, I finally got my diploma.

The Final Scene
Everything must have an end
Like an ocean to a shore,
Like a river to a stream.
We've come so far, and have finally
Reached the final scene.
Now the stage has all been set
Now the lines have all been read,
And we know them all by heart.
Now we must move toward the door.
Here it is, the hardest part.
Try the handle to the door,
Feeling different, feeling strange
This can never be arranged.
As we take the final steps,
As the light fades away from the stage,
As we, the Senior class, take our bow
The curtain falls, on the famous final scene.
As we will not present this scene again,
The Karns High School Senior Class says,
"Farewell until we meet again."

in the wind and to melt into the sun?
And what is it to cease breathing, but to free the breath from its restless

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

This year has been one I'm sure everyone on the staff will always remember. We have encountered a lot of difficulties and unexpected problems, but still managed to work together and turn out a truly unique annual. Thanks alot to Robert Smith, Andrea Hunter, Carol Belew, Sharon Fain, Kim Stevens, Lee Ann Hicks, Cathy Bridges, JoAnna Burnette, and a special thanks to Susan Carroll for being a super co-editor and a great little trooper. Thanks to Ian Joyce for taking many great pictures when he didn't especially feel like it and to Scott Hodges for writing such witty captions even when he would rather have been doing other things. Tom Sharp, our artist for the past two years, deserves a special thanks also for coping so well with the last minute mad demands for drawings. Anne Walton, who is a new librarian here, also deserves many thanks for contributing a lot of her time to typing copy and advising us. And of course, thank you, Anne Harvey, for being there and devoting so much of your time and effort to not only the production of the annual, but also to our personal problems.

Graduating AT LAST!!!
Becky Tanton
